DRIVING OFFENSIVE
RESUMED BY FRENCH
FORCES TEUTONS BACK

Five Miles of German Trenches Fall Into the Hands of the French Forces—British Still Pressing on Longueval—Eastern Army Fighting in Temperature Registering 120° in the Shade.

By Associated Press Dispatch.
London, July 20.—The French have resumed their driving offensive along the Somme, in northern France, forcing the Germans on a wide front both north and south of the river.

According to today's Paris bulletin, the German line trenches from Barleux to Soyecourt, south of the Somme, a distance of five miles, fell into French hands. North of the river, the French attack pushed east from Hardecourt and carried trenches along the Comblès-Cleary railway.

The operations here are close to the right flank of the British advance, Comblès itself being little more than three miles southeast of Longueval, for possession of which British and Germans are still fighting.

The French push forward at Soyecourt marks the furthest southward point carried by the French in their offensive.

Hard fighting continues on the Austro-Italian front, Vienna reports military engagements at various points, increased activity extending even to the Isonzo front.

Near Borcola Pass, the Austrians announce the repulse of three strong attacks, big stones being rolled down the mountainside to stop the Italians.

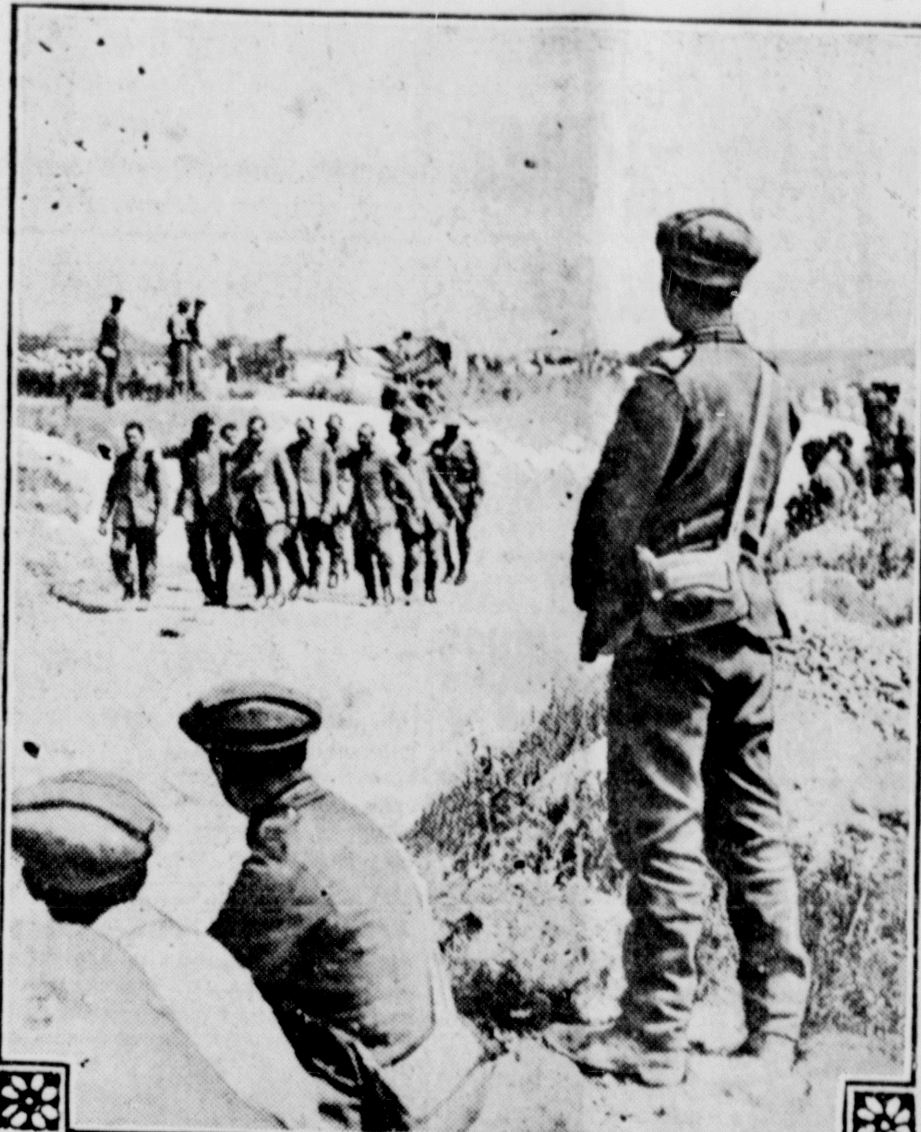

Last night's fighting in the Verdun region resulted in advantage to the French. Paris reports the capture of a strongly fortified German post near Fleury.

The British expeditionary force in Mesopotamia states that the day is fighting in heat that is 120 degrees in the shade.

HAVE VILLA
IN THE NET

Report Says the Carranza Troops Are Momentarily Expecting to Take Villa.

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Chihuahua City, Mexico, July 20.—Villa and his main band were in the vicinity of Amador, about 30 miles south of the Durango line, today, according to authentic reports to General Trevino.

General Trevino announced that the band, consisting of 800 men, is surrounded.

Four thousand men, largely cavalry, have been dispatched to reinforce the pursuers of the bandits.

It is believed Villa will attempt to break through the line to the southward.

Most of the reinforcements are being sent to that point.

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Galveston, Texas, July 20.—The capture of Francisco Villa by cavalry of the de facto Government is momentarily expected, according to a cablegram received here by Juan A. Mateos, Mexican consul here. The message said a Villa messenger, captured yesterday by Carranza troops, told of Villa's whereabouts, and that a force had been sent to capture him.

INSANITY WILL BE DEFENSE

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Boston, July 20.—Temporary insanity will be the defense of Dr. Eldridge D. Atwood, when he is brought to trial for the shooting of Dr. Wilfred E. Harris, unless present plans are changed. A predisposition to insanity probably will be established if this is possible. Dr. Harris, who was believed to be mortally wounded, is showing remarkable resistance to the effect of three bullet wounds in his body and the shock, and there is a chance of his recovery.

By Associated Press Dispatch.
New York, July 20.—Only one day since the beginning of the epidemic of infantile paralysis on June 26 have more fatalities from the disease occurred than in the last 24 hours.

Since the beginning of the epidemic, there have been 487 deaths and 2,416 cases.

FULL TICKET
FOR MOOSERS

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Indianapolis, Ind., July 20.—A complete state ticket is to be nominated by the Indiana Progressive State Convention, which convened this morning.

Presidential electors were chosen at a meeting of delegates from each district last night.

The final decision to nominate a full state ticket was reached last night, but not until after much opposition had developed.

As a result of the program there are two distinct factions in the party, one favoring the state ticket and the other opposed to it.

ALL READY TO DEPART

Deutschland Loaded With Full Cargo Is Ready for Dash—Tugs and Barges Screen the Visitor From Gaze of Curious.

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Baltimore, Md., July 20.—At dawn today a screen of tugs and barges was drawn about the submarine merchantman Deutschland, indicating that she would not leave here for several hours at least.

To all appearances, she is ready to start on her return voyage to Germany.

This morning, just as she was hidden from view, it was observed that she was submerged to about the same depth as when she came into port with full cargo.

Yesterday a force of mechanics went aboard the submarine to help the crew overhaul the engines.

It is thought probable that further testing of the machinery may be made before she takes her departure.

All through the night the tug Timmins played its searchlight ceaselessly over land and water, practically covering all approaches to the pier.

About midnight the vigilance of the German guard about the pier tightened.

Several launches were found hovering about the water near the submarine, and while the Timmins threw its searchlight up on these strange craft, the night superintendent of the Eastern Forwarding Company jumped into a motor boat and made a long tour of the waters about the pier, to inspect the mysterious visitors.

As though prepared to leave port at any moment, Captain Paul Koenig, commander of the Deutschland, put on his uniform today for the first time since he landed, eleven days ago.

Captain Koenig said he would not leave his ship again and indicated an early departure, but would give no idea just when the submarine will leave.

WILSON "O. K."

Announcement That Conference Has Agreed to Submit Dispute With Mexico to Commission.

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Washington, July 20.—Announcement that settlement of differences between the United States and Mexico will be made through a joint commission is looked for in the immediate future.

Only final approval by President Wilson and General Carranza is lacking, it was stated today.

Powers to be conferred on a commission have formed one of the chief points of discussion in preliminary negotiations between Acting Secretary Polk and Eliseo Arredondo, Mexican Ambassador designate.

Mr. Polk intends to take the question up with President Wilson at once.

Henry P. Fletcher, American Ambassador designate to Mexico, will go to his post in Mexico City soon after August 1, if the situation continues to clear up, it was announced today.

CHICAGO PROBES
FOR SUBNORMALS

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Chicago, July 20.—A complete survey of Cook County with regard to subnormal mind condition will be undertaken beginning August 1. This development was announced today, and came as an aftermath to the tragedy of Tuesday, in which Henry P. McIntyre, the negro fanatic, was responsible for the death of six persons, including himself and wife.

The survey is to be conducted by the Rockefeller Institute, and following it, legislation to meet conditions will be drafted and suggested to the Illinois Legislature.

It is stated that the proposed action is a step toward the elimination from society of half wits and subnormal people.

HEAT!

Several Prostrations Recorded in Columbus.

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Columbus, O., July 20.—One death and three prostrations from heat is the record of the past 24 hours of high temperature, which is expected to be broken today by thunderstorms.

Miss Carrie Niederlander, aged 72 was stricken yesterday and died within a few hours.

Bert Robinson, a roofer, was prostrated while working on a roof and fell 20 feet to the pavement. He was seriously injured.

A laundryman and a laborer were overcome by heat and are in hospitals.

STORM WARNINGS
ALONG COASTS

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Washington, July 20.—The tropical storm making its way up the Atlantic coast from the West Indies apparently was centered this morning 200 miles off the North Carolina coast.

The only reports came by radio from ships at sea in the vicinity of the storm.

They indicate that the storm is moving slowly northward and toward the coast.

Storm warnings were ordered continued at all stations from Hatteras to Boston.

WANT GOVERNMENT TO TAKE HAND

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Washington, July 20.—President Wilson today received a request from Henry Morgenthau, former Ambassador to Turkey, and several other New Yorkers, asking for Federal intervention in the cloak makers' strike which has been in progress in New York City for 12 weeks.

The President forwarded the request to the Department of Labor, with instructions that the Bureau of Conciliation make an effort to end the strike.

He had succeeded his father, who was pastor of the same church for 37 years.

Crothers, prominent minister of Philadelphia, who reached Greenfield a few hours after his father's death; Ernest, a business man of Salem, Oregon, who is now on his way to Greenfield. THIRD OF CROP IN THIS COUNTY

One local grain dealer estimates the total yield of wheat this year at not to exceed one-third of an average yield, and states that virtually all threshing will be completed this week.

The dealer states that the acreage not harvested was very large, in addition to much wheat plowed up in the spring, and that the average yield harvested will not exceed 10 bushels to the acre.

The wheat being received at the elevators is usually of good quality and the price being paid is $1.06, or approximately the price paid last year at this time.

Threshing opened up last week and the machines will find little to do after this week.

OIL IS APPLIED TO TEMPLE STREET

A motor truck, force oiler is now in use in the city oiling some of the streets where the residents have grown weary of clouds of unsanitary dust.

Temple street, west of North, is receiving a coat of oil which is applied with such force that it is evenly distributed over the street surface.

East Temple, East Market and one or two other streets have been oiled.

MARRIAGE BY MAIL: UNITED SOLDIER AND NEW JERSEY GIRL

The Bride and Bridegroom in Unique Ceremony.

Private Louis Bansemer, Company H, First regiment, New Jersey national guard, appeared before Notary Edward C. Bradford at headquarters, Douglas, Ariz., and signed a marriage contract with Miss Ethel Maud Sergeant of 60 Peck avenue, Newark. The papers were sent to Newark. First Sergeant J. C. Clark of Company H acted as witness. The company gave Bansemer a wedding breakfast of salt pork at 5 o'clock in the morning. Then the bridegroom went digging trenches. When the New Jersey troops were sent from Sea Girt to the border Miss Sergeant and Private Bansemer tried to be married by proxy, but when they were informed such a ceremony would have nothing more than a sentimental value and would not be binding legally they made arrangements to be married by mail. On July 6 Miss Sergeant appeared before a notary public in Newark, N. J., and signed a marriage contract. This was sent at once by registered mail to Bansemer at Douglas. Both her lawyer and Marriage Clerk Crissey at the Newark city hall declared such a procedure was perfectly legal and binding.

OATNEAL TO SPEAK IN COLUMBUS TONIGHT

Attorney J. T. Oatneal of this city and Hon. Daniel Ryan will address a large mass meeting of the colored voters of Columbus tonight in the interests of Hon. H. M. Daugherty for United States Senator.

The meeting is expected to be one of the largest colored Republican rallies held in Columbus for many a day.

SWINE PLAGUE IS COSTLY IN GREENE

Over $65,000 in cold cash, represents Greene county's toll paid to the demon of hog cholera in 1915. Nine thousand and eight-nine hogs fell victim to the disease, representing a total value of $65,119.

These figures, compiled from returns made by the personal property assessors, show that it is not the hoof and mouth disease which menaces the local stock business, but a contagion of which the state takes little account, and exercises small precaution to stay.

Three hundred and eighty-one Greene county farms were infected by cholera in 1915. Ross township contributed the largest number of victims to the disease, 1916, upon which owners estimate their loss at $13,790. In Miami township, 1373 swine died, at a loss to their owners of $10,382, and Xenia township furnished the third highest number of victims, 1110, valued at $9,385.—Xenia Gazette.

HEAVY STORM

A storm of great violence swept over part of Ross county Tuesday night, doing thousands of dollars' worth of damage to stock, buildings, fences, crops, etc.

The storm lasted for some little time and swept up from the south hanging over upper Ross county for sometime.

RAINS ALL AROUND DURING 24 HOURS

Many parts of Fayette county have enjoyed soaking rains during the past day or two, while it has rained on all sides of Washington, hardly a drop has fallen in this city during that time.

Wednesday about the noon hour a heavy rain fell a few miles west and southwest of this city, and about the same time northern Fayette received a heavy rain which was very much needed.

The previous night the rainfall south and east of the city was just what was needed to assist the growing crops which were very much in need of an abundance of moisture.

NEW LIMITED SHOWS OUTBURST OF SPEED

The "Capital City Limited," on the B. & O. left Columbus 25 minutes late one day this week, and while the schedule is a fast one, ten minutes were clipped off the schedule between Columbus and Wilmington, and another ten between Wilmington and Cincinnati. A delay of several minutes resulted in the outskirts of Cincinnati or the limited would have reached the Queen City on time.

For speed the new limiteds easily outdistance any other trains on the road.

WOMEN WILL USE "Y" SWIMMING POOL

At a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Y. M. C. A. held Wednesday afternoon, a departure was made to become effective next week and remain in force until January 1, 1917.

The innovation is the granting of the use of the "Y" swimming pool to the women two days out of each week, and three or more classes will be organized and enjoy the big pool. The classes will be small girls, large girls and women.

TOUGH MEDICINE

(By American Press)

Geneva, O., July 20.—Mostly skin and bones, Dr. H. G. Huffman, Youngstown dentist, is now on the twentieth day of his third annual fast. Three years ago Dr. Huffman fasted forty-seven days and regained his health when physicians said he would die in a few months of stomach trouble. Last year the dentist went without food, drinking only spring water, for thirty-one days, at his river camp near here. Dr. Huffman believes that starvation is nature's way of throwing off bodily poisons. Hunger disappeared after the fourth day, he said, but when it shows signs of returning he will end his fast.

The Band Concert

Two important facts were conclusively demonstrated by the open air free concert given by the Washington band in front of the court house Tuesday evening.

The first, and most important of all, perhaps, is the fact that this city has more than the nucleus for a really splendid band—it has a good band right now and the members have found their own way to the present high plane of efficiency almost single handed. They have asked no assistance until they were able to deliver "the real goods" in the line of musical entertainment. They are ready now to give the people more than, a good many folks, were expecting to receive.

The second fact conclusively demonstrated Tuesday and yesterday less important than the first is that the people of Washington and Fayette county want a good band here, want band concerts and will appreciate and patronize open air concerts.

All quarters of the city and every part of the rural sections, furnished its full quota to swell the crowd which came and heard, was convinced and delighted Tuesday night.

With all due respect to the Greenfield band, our own boys have conclusively demonstrated that with a little encouragement they are destined to have an organization that will rival with our neighbor to the south for popular favor in this section of the state.

The determination which the members of the local band have shown in taking up their work and sticking everlastingly at it is proof that they possess the real talent and love for music which guarantee in a short time a famous band.

No business man questions the vast amount of good a city derives from the possession of a good band.

Washington congratulates itself on the possession of its band—it needs congratulation more than the band. The emphatic approval given Tuesday night's concert by the delighted crowds from home and abroad has given the band boys a line on themselves.

The Farm Credit Law

When President Wilson affixed his signature to the new farm credit law, the splendid financial system which the present national administration has given to the people of the United States was extended and bettered.

The change in this country from the most antiquated and insufficient financial system in the world to the very best has been accomplished without any serious disarrangement of business conditions. In fact the change was made so quietly and so unostentatiously and so sufficient, under all strains, has the present system proven itself to be, that perhaps the majority of people fail to realize the revolutionary change that has been wrought.

For this nation to have gone through the business and financial crises which have come upon us, in the last few years, without a paralyzing money panic, under the old system would have been impossible.

Under the present system not a jar occurred to interrupt the serenity of the financial world.

The rural credits law is yet to demonstrate its efficiency. If, in that respect, it proves to be a fit companion law to the regional bank law another marked advance for the people will have been recorded.

Again Why the Sharks?

The gulf stream is responsible for a great deal, but there are many conditions unjustly charged up against that warm current of water which flows out of the Gulf of Mexico, north along the Atlantic coast about three hundred miles off shore until Cape Hatteras forces it northeastward to give England and France a temperate climate.

Now more than one experienced navigator is asserting that the visits of man-eating sharks to coast waters and inland streams is due to the fact that the warm current of the gulf stream has concluded to wander away from the established paths it has followed for centuries and go scouting around the bathing beaches and up the inland streams of New Jersey.

We can't believe that the gulf stream has done anything of the sort. We adhere to the belief that the gulf stream is "not in his ways."

Years ago some ambitious engineers wanted to dig a canal and let part of the Mediterranean Sea into the Sahara desert, converting the sand wastes into a great inland sea. Timid humanity concluded that the consumption of such a project would change the climate of southern Europe. No one knows whether it would or not. It was never tried.

We do know that the opening of the Suez Canal did not change the climate of southern Europe or that of the north corner of Asia.

So far the opening of the Panama Canal has not changed climatic conditions of the western hemisphere, unless the explanation of the sharks' appearance is correct.

We prefer to believe that the gulf stream is true to the great service of the centuries and to blame the appearance of the sharks on the disturbances man is creating.

Poetry For Today

THE REGULAR MAN.

Here's to the Regular Man,
Here's to his valor and brawn.
The Regular, Regular Army man
With his bone and sinew on!
The veteran wise and true,
And the big-boned youngster, too;
The Regulars, most of 'em deep in dreams
Of the battles that die in a mist of gleams,
And years of the sorrow, the ache and care,
The long campaigns, and the danger there!

Here's to his courage and skill,
Here's to his duty and zeal;
Here's to the force of his manly will,
The dead-true aim of his steel!
The Regular Army Man,
The first to ride to the crest
Of the trouble and muddle when war begins,
With a brave heart pounding his hairy breast—
And a mouth that is made of grins!

Here's to the Regular Man,
And over and over to him—
The man who has seen and known,
The man who is skin and bone,
But under the surface that's hard and grim
Soft and tender and broad and sweet,
A father and husband that's hard to beat,
Soldier and citizen, hero and knight
Ready in cold and ready in heat,
To spring to the saddle, and fight!

PETTING SPOILS FIRE HORSE.

Loses Love of Work as a Result of Pampering by Women Visitors.

San Francisco.—Dick, the veteran fire horse which crashed through a Market street store window some weeks ago, will never again be fitted for fire service.

Veterinary surgeons declare he has regained his former strength and vigor, but his mental attitude has changed through pampering by women visitors and other sympathizers during his sojourn in the hospital, and he now refuses even to look at a fire engine.

Dick has been so "spoiled" that no amount of persuasion can induce him to return to work.

Gets $15 From Prisoner.

Chester, Pa.—Posing as a "janitor," a stranger walked into the lockup here and flimflammed C. L. Bennett, a prisoner, out of $15 and made a safe getaway. He told the prisoner the chief wanted the money for safe keeping. Bennett discovered his loss when he found the real janitor was a negro, while the flimflammer was a white man.

SUFFER AT BORDER

Heat is Hard For Unacclimated Guardsmen.

MANY DISCOMFORTS AHEAD.

But There is a Wide Variety of Scenery and Much to Interest the Volunteers Who Are Doing Patrol Duty. Lower Part of Border Will Fascinate the Recruits.

San Antonio, Tex.—Campaigning upon the Mexican border is no pleasant picnic in these hot summer days for the thousands of unacclimated men from the northern states. Notwithstanding the many discomforts that will be encountered by the raw and unseasoned military men they will find portions of the frontier region full of fascinating interest. This is particularly true of that part of the border which extends from the mouth of the Rio Grande along the course of that stream for more than 600 miles. When the upper reaches of the Rio Grande begin to break into a rough, barren, monotonous country that runs westward all the way to the Pacific ocean the wild beauty and striking strangeness that characterize the lower border begin to wane.

There is a marked difference in the summer climate of the various points along the border, due to the varying altitude and the nearness of the ocean.

SOLDIER'S IMPROVED BUT TO PROTECT HIM FROM HEAT.

Many people would suppose that Brownsville, situated far down toward the tropics and within twenty-five miles of the mouth of the Rio Grande, would be a veritable inferno during the hot weather months. Just the contrary is true. The climate there in summer is delightful. The ever blowing trade winds sweep inward from the gulf of Mexico, tempering the heat of the sun. The effect of the gulf "breeze" is felt along the Rio Grande for more than 200 miles.

The towns and military stations of Harlingen, Mercedes, Donna, Mission, McAllen, Sanford, Hidalgo, San Benito, Edinburg, Rio Grande City, Roma, Zapata, Laredo, Fort Brown, Fort Ringgold and Fort McIntosh are all within the zone that is tempered by the constantly blowing breeze from the gulf. From Laredo all the way west to the Pacific ocean the summer temperature varies in intensity. The breeze that usually blows from the mountains of the states of Coahuila and Tamaulipas has a cooling effect upon the climate of the border from Laredo to the edge of the Big Bend country, taking in the towns of Eagle Pass and Del Rio.

If there is anything that the soldier from other states fervently hopes for above others it is that he be kept out of the Big Bend region. From now on until November an almost steady temperature ranging from 110 to 120 in the shade can be counted on. There is not a tree or shrub to break the terrific rays of the sun.

Most of the larger cities of Mexico are well situated at altitudes ranging from 3,000 to 7,000 feet. Saltillo, Durango, Zacatecas, Aguas Calientes, San Luis Potosi, Puebla, Pachuca, City of Mexico, Guadalajara, Oaxaca, Morelia and many other cities and towns have delightful summer climates, while the temperature in winter is mild and pleasant. The climate of Monterey and Torreon is hot, but not oppressively so. The gulf coast cities of Tampico, Vera Cruz, Coatzacoalcas, Tuxpan and Progreso are refreshed by cooling breezes. The same is true of the Pacific coast cities of Guaymas, Mazatlan, Manzanilla, Acapulco and Salina Cruz.

The climate of the border towns of Columbus, N. M.; Douglas, Naco and Nogales, Ariz., is not as unbearable in summer as one who has not gone through a living experience upon that part of the border might suppose. The nights are usually pleasant and the days are relieved by a breeze from the mountains. The region, however, is desolate and uninviting.

It is the mystery of the chaparral covered region of the lower Rio Grande border that appeals most to the average visitor to the frontier. Upon both sides of the international boundary stream the low growing mesquite trees, cat claws, prickly pear and innumerable other varieties of thorny shrubs and plants form an almost impenetrable wilderness.

Days You'll Never Forget

THE DAY YOU OPENED THE BOTTLE OF "SODY-POP"

HIS LUCKY NUMBER 13.

Farmer Tells How Mystic Numerals Stuck to Him.

Live Oak, Cal.—No matter how other people may feel about the number 13, Howard Grimes of Douglas county, Ore., considers it a messenger of good luck rather than a harbinger of evil.

Grimes was in Live Oak recently on his way to Davis, where, although he is sixty-four years of age, he is taking a course in agriculture.

On the back of his auto hung its license No. 1313. When reminded of its hoodoo proclivities the Oregonian smiled and volunteered a bit of history.

"I was born on Sept. 13, 1852," said he, "and was the thirteenth child in the family brood. When thirteen years old I left home to make my fortune. In 1913 I married, and our wedding fell on the 13th of the month.

"While riding a Northern Pacific train in 1912 I was in berth 13 and the train was wrecked. Every occupant in that car was injured but myself. In 1913 I made a little investment in mining property and cleaned up $10,000. I took the money and purchased 1,300 acres of land, and I am farming a part of it and learning how to farm it better."

MUST BE EIGHTEEN TO DANCE.

Girls if Younger Must Have Guardian's Permission.

Cleveland.—Girls who pride themselves on how young they look will have to take along their birth certificates when they go dancing at municipal dancing halls.

Those who can prove they're more than eighteen may keep on dancing after 9 o'clock. Those who not only look younger than eighteen and really are will have to press into service a parent or a guardian. No, no such luck. Any Tom, Dick or Harry won't do as a guardian. The powers that be won't put up with it. The guardian has to be a regular guardian, manufactured by a court of justice.

City Dance Hall Inspector John, dance hall chaperons and dancing masters got together at a meeting in the city hall recently and tried to have the "younger set" barred from the floors after 9 o'clock, parents or guardians notwithstanding.

GET $8,000 FOR KINDNESS.

Boy and Girl Rewarded For Favors to Invalid Woman.

Pittsburgh.—Henry Paul McPeake of this city and his sister, Miss Lois McPeake of Canonsburg, have just been made aware that it pays to be kind to an old invalid lady, in the fact that her will, filed for probate here, provides for the boy in the sum of $5,000 and $3,000 to his sister.

Some years ago when Mrs. Anna Sutton Leech, a wealthy resident of Pittsburgh, was at a sanitarium at Markle there was also there as a patient young McPeake, who is a son of George C. McPeake, Republican nominee for the legislature in Washington county, and when Lois came to visit her brother they got acquainted with the lonely widow. Between them they contributed to make life a little pleasanter for Mrs. Leech, and she promised not to forget them. She died recently.

Used to It.

"I am thinking of buying a couple more lots next to the one my house is on."

"Seems to me you've got a pretty big plot as it is."

"I know, but the mortgage is nearly paid off and I've got to have something to worry about."—Exchange.

Graded Down.

Great is America! People of means may hear the world's greatest voices for $10; those in moderate circumstances may obtain phonographic records of the same voices for $2.50, while the very poor can see the same singers act in the movies for a dime.—Life.

FISH AND GAME ASSOCIATION IS UP IN ARMS

Indications are that the case in which ten well known men of Sabina and environs are accused of illegal fishing, as a result of a visit made by Deputy State Game Warden Frank Hard to a point near Beuna Vista where he brought back a 95 foot sein, the party had in use, will prove an interesting one before it is ended.

The sein was found last Friday, and this week, after communicating with General Speaks, Deputy Hard went before Justice Craig and filed affidavits against 10 men, including Clinton County's Warden, H. D. Pavay, charging them with illegal fishing.

It is stated that one or more of the accused made several trips to Columbus, and upon representations that they were seining for carp to be placed in a pond, made to General Speaks or the Board of Agriculture, or both, orders were issued to drop the charges, "for the present."

The men had been cited to appear before Justice Craig at nine o'clock Thursday morning, following their failure to show up the previous day, but when the orders from his chief arrived, Deputy Hard complied with orders of the Board and notified the men not to appear.

When officers of the Fayette Fish and Game Protective Association were informed that the Board of Agriculture had issued orders to stop the prosecutions, the affair aroused their ire, and the Association is now determined to see the matter through to a finish.

As a result a special meeting of the Association will be held at Attorney H. M. Rankin's office at seven o'clock tonight, and some definite action may be taken.

HOTEL MEN IN CONCLAVE

A number of prominent hotel men of this section of the state enjoyed a banquet and business meeting at the Cherry Hotel, Thursday, taking up the project of changing the hotels under their management from the American to the European plan.

This change is being generally made and the American plan is rapidly being abolished for the more popular European plan.

Mine host C. H. Griffin, of the Cherry, entertained the guests with his accustomed geniality and took an active part in the new movement.

The following hotel men were in attendance:

AUSPICIOUS OPENING OF CHAUTAUQUA

Afternoon Program Delights Large Audience, and Tonight's Program Offers Additional Pleasures—Ticket Sale Large.

The greatest chautauqua ever given in this part of the state is now under way, and the crowd at the opening session was pleasing to the management and the program offered was pleasing to the audience.

The advance ticket sale has been very satisfactory, and the Junior Chautauqua held in conjunction with the regular chautauqua, gives promise of being a thorough success.

Thursday afternoon Supt. Chas. S. Pilkington, a very fluent speaker, delivered a ten minute address teeming with wit and impressing upon the audience the benefits derived from such a chautauqua as that offered this year.

Following the address Colangelo's Famous Italian Musicians, an organization which renders strictly high class music, and which contains a number of gifted soloists, entertained the audience with an exceptionally brilliant concert. The organization is composed of master musicians from the shores of sunny Italy, and the audience tonight will have another opportunity of feasting upon the delightful harmony produced by Colangelo's musicians.

In addition to the concert by Colangelo's Musicians tonight at eight o'clock, Dr. G. Whitfield Ray, F. R. G. S. will give a new illustrated lecture of absorbing interest. Dr. Ray is a genuine Globe Trotter and in a most entertaining way gives his auditors the benefit of his travels.

J. Whitcomb Brounger are the attractions Friday afternoon, and come recommended as the best in their respective lines.

In Social Circles

The Presbyterian Ladies' Missionary Society held a meeting of full numbers yesterday and of very great interest at the home of Mrs. J. M. Minturn; assisting hostesses Mesdames A. C. Henkle, B. F. Davis, Sever, Hadley, Stitt, Blackmore, Mayer, Bryant, Chas. McLean, Chas. Gage, Wm. Springer, Williams, Sheets; Misses Veail, Kinzer, Harvey and Grey.

The motto of the day was, "The first work of the whole world, is to give the gospel to the whole world." In connection with the opening of the program in charge of Mrs. Klever, the secretary, Mrs. Woodward, read most interesting letters from special missionary workers Mrs. Candor in Bogota, S. A., and Dr. Ames in Tsining, China.

The society decided to make their box work this year for the Dwight School in Oklahoma.

Mrs. Harry Sprenger gave a paper on "Young Missionaries who Become Famous," beginning with the Scotch Cobbler Cary whose life became such a record and bringing in something of the lives of such workers as Robt. Morrison, Livingston, Thorburn and others. This was full of interest as also was Mrs. Hopkins' report of the last Presbyterian General Assembly at Atlantic City.

There was indeed an inspiration from the president's vivid portrayal of this great meeting celebrating its 128th anniversary and with eight hundred and eighty six commissioners attending the ten days' service. The Woman's Board lent most valuable aid especially in reports given such as the one on the Panama Congress and the Regional Conference at Baranquilla.

A pleasurable social hour, with refreshments closed the afternoon.

TAX COLLECTIONS

Taxes received at the treasurer's office, Wednesday, totaled $9,024.43 while $6,490.18 was received at Jeffersonville, bringing the total up to $15,514.61 for the day. The books close next Tuesday.

IT STICKS THROUGH SENATE

Unsuccessful Fight Waged Against It.

OLIVER AND PENROSE LOSE

Attack On the General Preparedness Program Made by LaFollette, Who Discusses the Naval Bill—Holds That Conditions Confronting the Nation Do Not Warrant Navy Increases—Day in the Senate.

Washington, July 20.—Holding the general preparedness program the product of agitation by moneyed interests, aided by the metropolitan press, Senator LaFollette attacked the naval appropriation bill.

Most of the session was taken up with an unsuccessful fight by Senators Oliver and Penrose on the section of the bill providing for a $11,000,000 government armor plant. By a vote of 51 to 17 the senate defeated a motion to strike out the section, and then voted down, 49 to 16, the Oliver amendment to refer the armor controversy to the federal trade commission for settlement.

Senator LaFollette contended vigorously that neither conditions confronting the nation nor the testimony given before the congressional naval committees warranted the proposed navy increases.

"A total of $844,000,000 is the load that goes on the bended backs of the American people," he declared. "Why is this to be done? If it is necessary now, why was it not necessary four years ago? You knew then what was the naval and military strength of all of the foreign countries, but the interests had not been appealed to then. Bethlehem Steel at 40 was not Bethlehem Steel at 940. The interests behind this preparedness plan do not fear Germany or England. The plan merely fits into their imperialistic schemes."

The senator charged that men had been forced into preparedness parades under threats of having their wages reduced. Workingmen in Washington, he said, had told him they marched in the demonstration here for that reason. The larger newspapers of the country, he declared, were influenced by the advertising of the "interests" behind the preparedness propaganda to devote most space to the testimony of witnesses before the congressional committees who favored preparedness.

"A cheap-skate of a business man can get a column and a half on the front page if he will boost preparedness," he shouted, "but General Weaver, who speaks against it, can not get a line."

Senator LaFollette quoted voluminously from reports of the committee hearings to prove that the navy is in better shape than preparedness advocates make it appear. He insisted that it is stronger than Germany's navy and pointed out that Germany, with a navy about half as large as England's, had been able to prevent an invasion of her territory.

Senators Oliver and Penrose, speaking against the armor plate plant proposal, insisted that it simply would mean a waste of money now that the Bethlehem Steel company has offered to furnish plate at a price to be set by the federal trade commission.

Senator Harding voted in favor of striking out of the naval appropriation bill the provision for establishment of a government armor plate factory. "I have a conviction," he said, "that everything the government is doing has a tendency to increase the cost of production."

LOOKS LIKE 'J. FRANK' NOW

Indiana Man Likely to Head the Dry Ticket.

St. Paul, July 20.—The nomination of J. Frank Hanly of Indiana as the presidential candidate of the Prohibition party was confidently predicted by friends of Hanly and leaders of the so-called organization forces in the Prohibition national convention, following the unanimous re-election of Virgil G. Hinshaw of Chicago to the chairmanship of the national committee. Hanly's chief opponent is ex-Governor Sulzer of New York.

Further impetus was given the Hanly candidacy by the selection of Robert H. Patton of Springfield, Ill., as permanent chairman, leaders of both forces admitted. Howard Kerschner of Topeka was named permanent secretary.

Temporary Chairman Poling in the keynote address, attacked militarism and the preparedness programs of the Democratic and Republican parties. The delegates cheered his remarks.

A Sulzer meeting was the signal for the unmasking of the batteries of the Sulzer and Hanly forces and bitter debates took place in hotel lobbies in which the New Yorker's followers accused Hanly of trying to seize control of the party, while Hanly's adherents charged Sulzer with accepting the support of the liquor interests in his candidacy for the Prohibition nomination.

OUT AND IN

Baltimore, July 20.—The submarine Deutschland will, it is believed, depart soon from this port. There is evidence that the vessel is ready to make the dash for Germany. The berth now occupied by the Deutschland will be taken by her sister submarine, the Bremen, which, it was said authoritatively, will arrive in Chesapeake bay next Sunday. A large amount of provisions has been taken aboard the Deutschland and the long awaited consignment of fuel oil has arrived. Every attempt at secrecy is still being made. The much discussed bag of mail from the German embassy has been turned over to Captain Koenig.

At midnight the two spars of the Deutschland were taken down and the conning tower closed.

London, July 20.—Another vote of credit will be asked for next week, the premier informed the house of commons. It will be the eleventh vote since the outbreak of the war and probably will be for $1,500,000,000, the same amount as the last one. This will bring up the total for the war to $13,410,000,000.

4,000 MEN WEEDED OUT

Will Be Week, Perhaps a Month, Before Guardsmen Move.

Columbus, July 20.—If Ohio regiments are to be fitted out with equipment "C" before leaving for the border, it probably will be at least a week, perhaps a month, before any Buckeye troops entrain. Colonel Duffy, quartermaster general, said that no railroad cars to haul troops to the border will be in Columbus for a week, under present orders.

After having weeded out nearly 4,000 of the 12,000 Ohio guardsmen who reported to the Upper Arlington mobilization camp, federal examiners expect to complete their work late today.

The population of Camp Willis has been reduced from about 13,000 soldiers to 8,359 by physical examinations, the mustering out of married men and desertions. Men absent without leave who are brought back to camp are being fined $2 and given two days at hard labor. Those caught and brought back after an absence of ten days or more will be court-martialed and possibly given a term in the federal pen at Fort Leavenworth.

Colonel J. Guy Deming of the Second regiment reports that one captain, G. M. Radabaugh of Company K, St. Marys, and a number of the Second's lieutenants, were eliminated by the examiners.

A record was broken when three companies of the Second, C of Lima, L of Sycamore and I of Kenton, got by without a man being disqualified because of eyesight.

War department officials wired that by the time the Ohio troops are ready to go to the border there will be tourist sleepers for all. These sleepers will not all be at Camp Willis, awaiting the order to send the troops, but they can be assembled on short notice.

Ohio troops will be paid at Columbus before leaving for the border. This was the positive conclusion reached by Senator Pomerene in a conference he had with Secretary of War Baker.

BRITISH RECOVER GROUND

Regain Most of Territory Taken By Germans.

NOT FIGHTING ON SOMME

No Let-Up to the Struggle Between the Germans and the Anglo-French Forces—Russians Hammering Austro-German Lines On the Eastern Front—Turks and Slavs Engaged in Asia Minor.

London, July 20.—There has been no abatement in the sanguinary struggle between the British and Germans north of the Somme, which began Tuesday, after a German bombardment and an attack by heavy infantry forces which gave to the Teutons the village of Longueval and Delville wood.

In counter attacks the British succeeded in regaining most of the territory they had lost, and, in addition, dispersed with their artillery fire a large body of Germans who were massing for another attack to the south of Delville wood. Hard fighting is still going on in this sector. To the south of the Somme the French report the capture of several German trenches.

Around Verdun, in the region of Hill 304 and on the Fleury sector, the Germans are heavily bombarding the French positions, probably presaging the usual infantry attacks.

In the vicinity of Riga the Russians are still hammering hard Field Marshal Von Hindenburg's forces, but according to Berlin all their attacks thus far have failed, with heavy losses. Further south, in Volhynia, the Russians along the Stokhod river and to the west and southwest of Lutsk, are heavily bombarding the positions of the Teutonic allies.

While Petrograd asserts that the Russians in Galicia are advancing toward the passes of the Carpathian mountains, leading to the plains of Hungary, Vienna says that southwest of Delatyn the Austrians have driven the Russians back across the River Pruth.

German naval aircraft have dropped a large number of bombs on Reval, in the Gulf of Finland, causing, according to Berlin, damage to Russian cruisers, troop boats and submarines in the gulf and to military establishments on land.

In Asia Minor, south of Trebizond, additional gains for the Russians against the Turks are chronicled by Petrograd, while Constantinople reports slight successes for the Turkish arms against the British along the Euphrates river and north of the Persian gulf near Basra. In addition, the Turks are declared to have defeated the Italians in northern Tripoli at Misratah.

CALENDAR OF THE TURKS.

Its Oriental Simplicity Is Fairly Madening to Strangers.

The Turks count their day from one sunset to the next sunset, dividing the twenty-four hours into twelves, as we do. This is plain sailing, but unfortunately sunset does not fall at the same hour day after day, and there ensue horrible complications to the innocent European.

By way presumably of jest the Turkish steamers follow Turkish and their railways Frankish time. Probably many a good man has ended his life in a lunatic asylum after a frantic attempt to reconcile the two. The pampered rich have watches specially constructed with two dials, one showing each time.

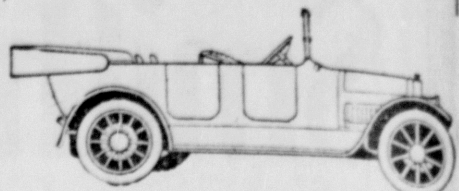

Apparently some enterprising Osmanli thought that the Turkish calendar erred on the side of simplicity and kindly invented a new complication. The Mohammedan year dates from the flight of the prophet in the seventeenth century. Each year the first month, Mahirah, comes eleven days earlier, so the months do not mark the seasons like ours.

There is one more section for the benefit of the Turkish peasant, who in his rural retreats knows nothing of months. For him the year is composed of two seasons—hidralis, beginning on May 6, and kassin, beginning Nov. 7—so to him April 20 is the one hundred and sixty-fourth day of kassin.—London Standard.

A POLITICAL "BOOM."

How the Idea of the Expression Came to Its First User.

The word "boom," as applied to a political movement, so far as known, was first used by the editor of a Republican newspaper in St. Louis, Mo., pending the return of General U. S. Grant from the trip around the world undertaken by him in 1876, immediately following his retirement from the presidency of the United States.

The term was used so persistently and so cleverly that it soon began to lodge in popular thought and to take on the meaning which the editor intended to convey when he declared that the movement looking to a third term for Grant was "booming," or when he employed the invention as a noun and spoke of "the Grant boom."

The idea had come to him from a common expression used by the people along the Mississippi river. When that stream was at floodtide and sweeping everything before it it was said to be "booming." The St. Louis editor aimed to convey the thought that the movement for the nomination of Grant for the presidency in 1880 was like the onward sweep of a great river under such conditions, and therefore a boom.

The term soon came into general use and has been applied in the United States ever since, alike to spontaneous and preconcerted or organized movements looking to the placing of some person in an office of importance, not necessarily, but generally, the presidency.—Christian Science Monitor.

VILLA IS NOW HARD PRESSED

Making Its Way Toward the Durango Border.

PURSUED BY CARRANZISTAS

Band of Villa Bandits Attack Government Supply Train Near Santa Ysabel and Kill Six Carranza Soldiers, but Are Beaten Off—Negotiations For Settlement of Mexican Mess Proceeding at Washington.

El Paso, Tex., July 20.—The main band of Villa followers, making its way through the Rio Florida bottoms toward the Durango border, consists of less than 800 men, and is being sorely pressed by General Matias Ramos' troops, according to Mexican reports received here.

According to private dispatches, six government soldiers were killed in the Villista attack upon a Carranzista supply train at Palomas, Chihuahua. The bandits, it is added, were driven off.

Other reports reaching here said that a band of about fifty outlaws, under Nicholas Hernandez, also is operating in the vicinity of Palomas, which is about thirty-three miles southwest of Chihuahua City and fifteen miles east of Santa Ysabel. It is believed here that the remnants of the band under Martin Lopez, which was beaten off by the train guard in the attack, may attempt to effect a junction with this command. Lopez is a brother of Pablo Lopez, recently executed at Chihuahua City, for participation in the massacre of eighteen Americans at Santa Ysabel last January.

The dispatches reaching here said that the Villa followers had been able to seize none of the supplies and indicates that their dead numbered seven.

SOME PROGRESS

(By American Press)

Washington, July 20.—Preliminary negotiations between Acting Secretary Polk and Eliseo Arredondo, Mexican ambassador designate, for peaceful settlement of border difficulties, progressed so well that a formal announcement "very soon" as to the course to be followed was officially predicted.

The conferees met twice. Later Mr. Arredondo telegraphed a report to his government and Mr. Polk prepared a similar report for Secretary Lansing, now on his vacation, and probably will talk the situation over with President Wilson.

Henry P. Fletcher, ambassador designate to Mexico, was present at both conferences, interpreting whenever it was necessary to insure a clear understanding. It is understood the discussions dealt particularly with the powers to be conferred upon a joint commission should that plan of settlement be followed.

TEUTON VERSION

(By American Press)

Berlin (via London), July 20.—An official statement issued here states that the German forces gained their greatest victory since the allied offensive began when they recaptured the village of Longueval and Delville wood in a fierce counter attack against the British right wing north of the Somme. The Germans attacked in large force, delivering their most powerful blows against Longueval village, which occupies a strategic position at the intersection of two highways.

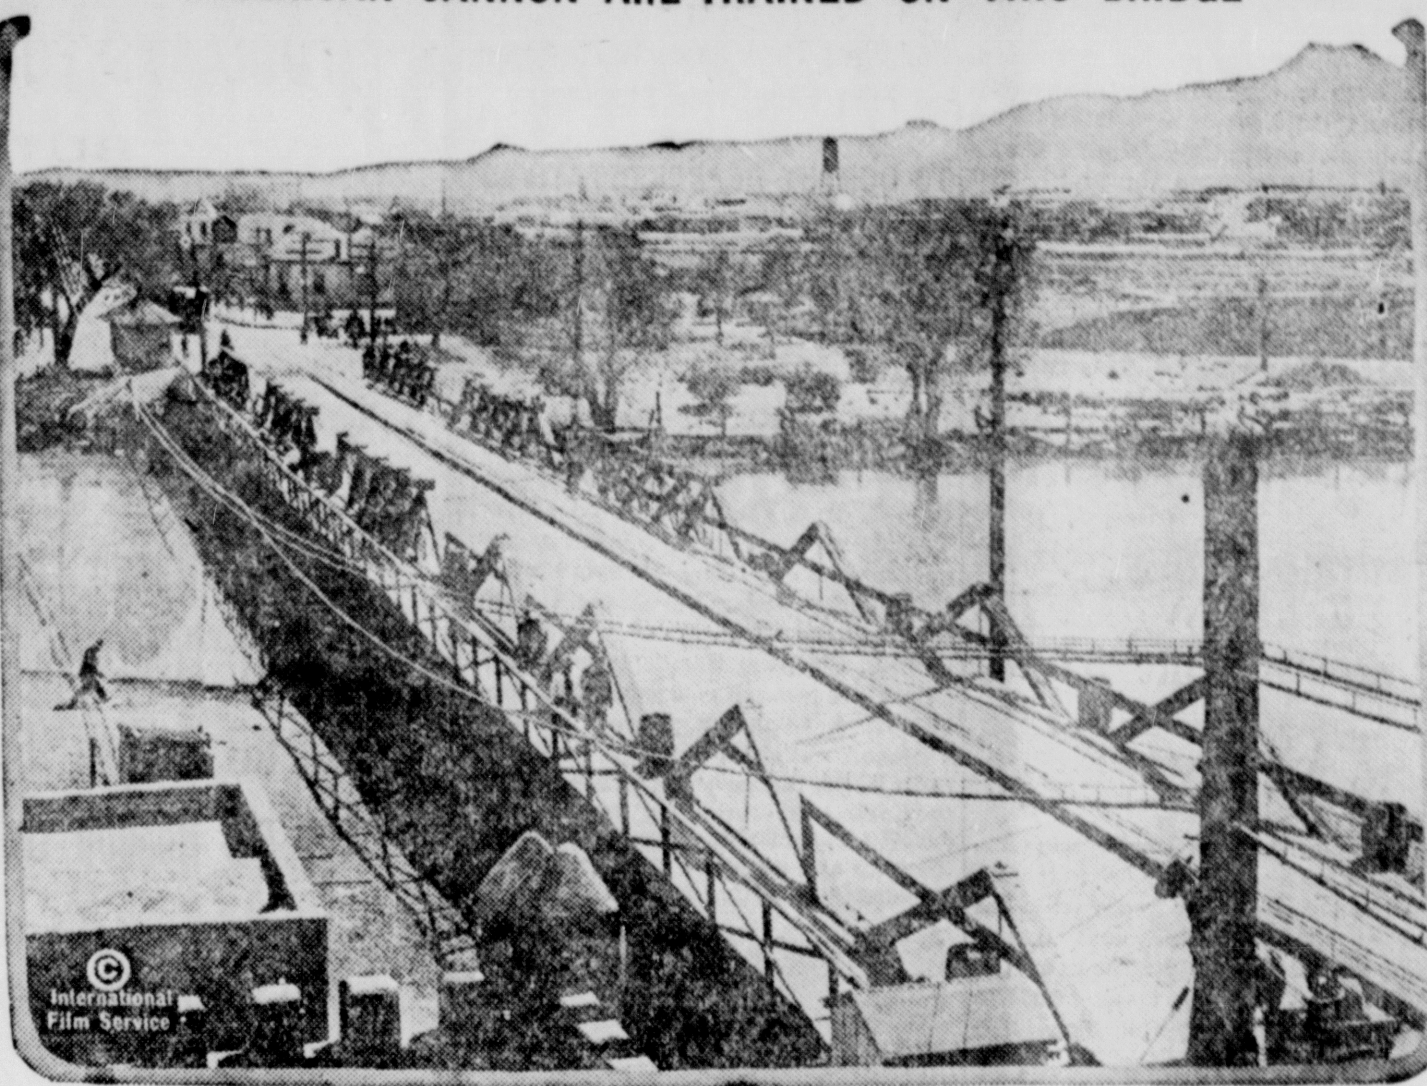

The battle raged for hours with great violence, the Germans bringing up fresh troops and attacking repeatedly. By recapturing Longueval, the Germans not only hold up the British advance toward Baupaulme, over the highway from Bray, but check any farther advance by the French north of the Somme.

The official statement adds: "British attacks north of Ouvillers and south of Posieres, on the left wing, were dispersed. French attacks north of Barleux and in the region of Belloy-Santerre were checked. On the Verdun front, the French continued their fruitless attacks in the region of Froide Terre."

IMPATIENT NATION

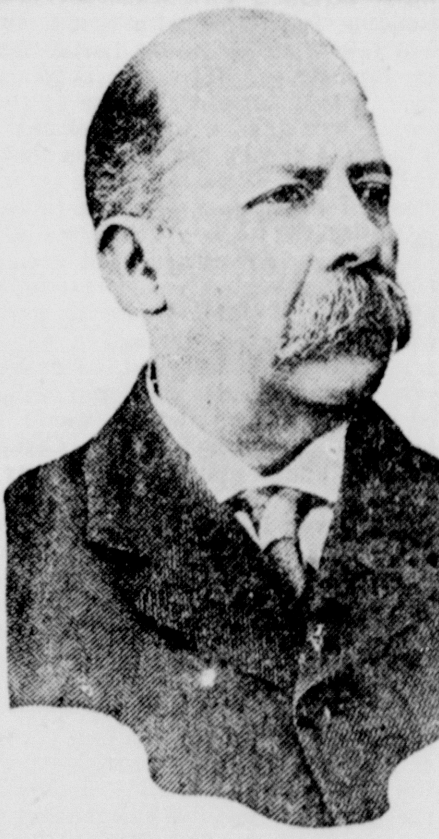

Guatemala, Mexico's Southern Neighbor, Suffers From Raids.

BIG LOSS BY DEPREDATIONS.

Northern Border of Country Attacked at Intervals, and Valuable Stores of Chicla Are Taken and Readily Sold to Nearby Dealers, Who Ship to United States.

Guatemala City.—The people of the republic of Guatemala, Mexico's neighbor to the south, are about as nearly out of patience with the Carranza government as are those of the United States. The depredations along the northern border of this country, which began as soon as Carranza found himself accepted by the American government as a real ruler, have continued at intervals ever since.

The damage suffered by the citizens living on the frontier has not been so great as that inflicted on Americans along the Texas, Arizona and New PRESIDENT ESTRADA CABRERA.

Mexico border, because the dividing line is much shorter and the country is less thickly settled.

The tactics against Americans, however, seem to be the same as those employed in the north—the quick raid upon some isolated and unprotected hamlet, the shooting of a few inoffensive and unarmed people, the looting and the hurried get away.

Although the Carranza government has steadily disclaimed all responsibility for these incursions and has placed the responsibility upon the omnipresent bandits, enough evidence has been collected by government agents to show that many of the attacks were participated in by men known to be Carranza partisans maintaining a loose sort of military organization.

Among the few Americans in the northern part of Guatemala these attacks by Mexicans are spoken of as "chewing gum raids." In almost every case, particularly along the frontier of the department of Peten, the object of the marauders is to steal the laboriously obtained and valuable stores of chicla from which chewing gum is made and for which the forests of Peten are famous.

The chicla finds a ready market among dealers near by and is shipped out of the country as a Mexican product, usually to the United States.

A trip through the interior of the country is sufficient to convince the traveler that the republic was never in a more peaceful condition. The only revolutionary efforts that have been discovered have been those of Mexicans, most of whom are known to be in Carranza's pay. These gentlemen have been promptly deported.

United States silver dollars in the district between Guatemala City and Puerto Barrios, the Atlantic port, are much more in evidence than they are along Broadway. No one seems to be able to explain the influx of coins, but they are welcomed, and the tattered money of the republic is a bad second in popularity.

Only second in importance to the business boom among all classes is the effective solution of the high cost of living problem.

Bread forms the most important part of the people's food, and bread has been steadily rising in price on account of the control of the grist mills by a few large syndicates. President Estrada Cabrera called a halt on this by nationalizing all the water powers of the country, setting up mills and leasing them under suitable regulations.

These mills cut the price of bread, and the syndicate, unable to compete with them by using steam power, found their grip on the pantry of the republic broken.

HOUSE CARRIED THIRTY MILES BY TORNADO

Heavy Construction Literally Torn to Shreds—Parts Distributed Over Three Indiana Counties.

Brownstone, Ind.—Bits of books and pieces of boards have been picked up in Jackson and Scott counties which were identified as parts belonging to the house of Mrs. Elizabeth Wilcox, a widow living near Campbellsburg, Washington county, which was destroyed by a tornado and scattered along in the path of the storm for a distance of about thirty miles.

The house, a two story eight room building, stoutly constructed and in good shape, was literally torn to shreds in a few seconds. A barn across the road from the house was demolished, and of the corn crib, made of large round logs, no trace has been found. A large rug was taken off the floor of the house and carried about five miles. A heavy iron range was found about a quarter of a mile from the house, and an iron kettle weighing about seventy-five pounds was found a mile away from the place the next day.

Mrs. Wilcox felt a slight jar of the house just before going to bed on a cot near a large stone fireplace. Parts of the fireplace fell on her and pinned her to the floor. The house was splintered and carried away by the storm. The tornado had dipped and struck a knoll just across the road from the house and scraped the sod off a space about twenty-five feet square.

GENERAL CADORNA

Commander in Chief of All the Italian Armies.

Alex Brown, who lives near, stepped out early in the morning and found his front porch gone. Looking over toward Mrs. Wilcox's place, he noticed the ruins and hurried over. He found Mrs. Wilcox conscious and soon removed the stones that held her down. A doctor was called, and it was found that one arm was broken, her chest crushed in and bruises and scratches covered her body.

Three five-dollar gold pieces were carried away. One of them was found later about half a mile from the house. Rabbits and fox squirrels were slaughtered by the storm when it struck the woods east of the place. Of the 150 chickens on the place not more than twenty-five could be found, and several of them were stripped of their feathers by the storm. A black oak tree about three feet in diameter was found near the house, and no one seems to know where it came from, as there are no black oaks in the woods near by. An apple orchard was blown about a quarter of a mile from the place, and there was not a fence or post left standing on the place.

COURT PAYS TO SETTLE CASE.

Judge Gives Plaintiff $10 In Order to Save County Expense.

Enterprise, Ore.—To save Wallawa county the expense of trying a lawsuit in which the litigants were only $10 apart Judge J. W. Knowles in the circuit court paid over that amount to the plaintiff out of his own pocket, and the suit was dismissed.

The suit was brought by J. A. Burleigh against Lillian Spicer. Burleigh appeared on his own behalf in the circuit court, but Mrs. Spicer was represented by an attorney. When the case was called Judge Knowles interrupted. "I have been informed," he said, "that plaintiff and defendant are only $10 apart in this case."

The lawyers replied that was correct. "Then I will give the plaintiff $10 to settle the suit," the judge said, "and we can proceed to something important and avert the expense of a trial."

The "S O S" Call.

The original wireless signal of distress at sea. "C Q D" was adapted from the old "all stations" or general call of line telegraphy. But at the first international wireless congress it was suggested and approved that a better call was "S O S," which, by its arrangement of dots and dashes, is different from any other call.

"S O S" has no special meaning. It is not intended to express "Save our souls" or anything else equally dramatic. This call is an international one and has the same meaning in all languages.

NO DISQUIET WITH GUARDS IS THE CLAIM

Guard Officers Deny Claim That Any Dissatisfaction Exists—Supplies Arriving.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Camp Willis, July 20. — Published statements that dissatisfaction and desertion, because of the continued delay of Ohio guardsmen in their movement to the border, looms as a serious problem at Camp Willis were stoutly denied today by Guard officers.

A carload of 4,000 hats and miscellany of shoes and leggins and hat cords arrived today, the first of the required equipment C to reach the camp.

Major Robert W. Mearns, senior mustering officer, received advices from department commanders in Chicago that clothing was being shipped from supply stores at St. Louis, while other supplies lacking to make the guard organization independent fighting units when they reached the field will be shipped from other stores at Jeffersonville, Ind.

Physical examination of the guardsmen was today completed by Major E. L. Ruffner and his corps of assistants.

SHAKESPEARE'S WORKS.

The Precious First Edition Quartos
Are Now Next to Priceless.

Few literary prophecies have been so strikingly fulfilled as that of the "newer writer" who in the preface which followed the revised title of the first edition of "Troilus and Cressida" (1609) predicted of Shakespeare that "when he is gone and his commodities out of sale you will scramble for them and set up a new English inquisition."

The number of first editions in quarto of Shakespeare's plays now known to exist is 144, with two fragments, of which eighty are in public ownership and sixty-four in private ownership. These volumes are worth not merely their weight in gold, but their weight in banknotes of high denominations. They represent sixteen different plays, two of them having double texts, making an average of eight copies of each, and those which were most popular having already been pirated—"Romeo and Juliet," the first "Hamlet," "Henry V." and the "Merry Wives"—master only seventeen copies among them.

The authors of "A Census of Shakespeare's Plays in Quarto, 1594-1709" (Yale University Press), Henrietta Bartlett and Alfred Pollard, estimate that most of Shakespeare's plays printed in quarto received editions of 1,200 copies each. The wear and tear of the centuries has thus disposed of many thousands of these priceless books. The total is much larger if we add the quartos which appeared after the first editions, but before the "authorized" folio editions of 1623, issued by Shakespeare's colleagues of the theater. The survivals alone of these intermediate quartos number 301 copies, of which 144 are in public and 157 in private ownership.—New York Post.

VATICAN HAS SHIP

For First Time Since 1870 Papal
Flag Flies Over Steamer.

TO CONVEY REPRESENTATIVES

Painted With White and Yellow
Stripes—Safety Said to Be Guaranteed—Reported Von Buelow Believed Best Way to Punish Italy Was to Restore Temporal Power to Pope.

Rome.—For the first time since 1870 the Papal flag is flying over a steamer owned by the Vatican, and strangely enough, it is sheltered in the Civita Vecchia harbor with the consent of the government at Rome. When United Italy under Victor Emmanuel II. established the house of Savoy at Rome in 1870, the pope was deprived of all power and position as a sovereign. He became a voluntary prisoner in the Vatican, while the king housed his court in the former papal palace of the Quirinal. As every king has been a devoted Catholic, the enmity between the king and pope has been a political expediency, a fiction in fact. Loyalty to the Catholic church on the part of influential members of the Italian cabinet, combined with the fear of German submarines, has brought to the pope the privilege of flying his own flag once more in Italian waters. The steamer has been bought by the Vatican to convey officials of the Catholic church whom the pope desires to send abroad as his representatives. The first voyage will be to South America, to convey the new papal nuncio, Mgr. Bassalio di Torregrossa, to Buenos Aires.

The steamer, to be known as the Nuncio, is painted with broad white and yellow stripes easily distinguished by submarines. Its safety is guaranteed, it is understood, by one of those secret agreements with Germany of which the papacy has been accused at various times by the quadruple entente. There would appear, however, to be no necessity for such a guarantee after the German government had been informed that such a vessel was on the high seas. Nothing would be gained by its destruction through a submarine. On the other hand, to grant it safety, even without this being requested by the papacy, would warm the hearts of Emperor William's Catholic subjects and stimulate their loyalty to him.

Prince von Buelow, a diplomatic envoy at the Vatican in his younger years, long before he was German ambassador at Rome, has always been friendly to the papal government. It is reported in London and has been for eight or nine months that Buelow believes in the restoration of temporal power to the pope as the best method of punishing Italy for participating in the war against her former allies of the triple alliance. While making extended visits to Switzerland Buelow has had frequent consultations with Catholic cardinals and other dignitaries of the church.

The pope's refusal to align himself on the side of the quadruple entente and especially to make public any protest against the invasion of Catholic Belgium by the Germans is declared in England to be due to a promise made by the sovereigns of the central empires that his temporal authority is to be restored after the war. The plan is, according to these reports, to make the pope the political as well as the spiritual sovereign in Palestine. A small state would be established, including Jerusalem and the other holy places as well as the seaport of Jaffa. The territory is believed to be enormously rich in natural resources and to be able to support a cardinal viceroy, who would rule there in the name of the pope.

The British government a few months after the beginning of the war made the extraordinary move of sending a minister to the Vatican, Sir Henry Howard, who had had a long diplomatic experience. This was a recognition of the pope's status as a sovereign, which Britain, along with all other non-Catholic governments, withdrew from the pope in 1870. Russia at the same time reopened her legation at the Vatican, where there had been no envoy for some time on account of the refusal of Russia to grant Catholics the protection which the papacy demanded. France has had no representative at the Vatican for some time, and neutral Catholic countries like Spain had also broken off diplomatic relations with the pope before the war.

STORY OF AN ORNAMENT.
The Lavalliere and the French Beauty
Who First Wore It.
Do you know what a lavalliere is? You have seen many neck ornaments of more or less elaborate design suspended from chains that were thin or massive, which were sold as lavallieres. The traveler who knows his business will tell you that the large and highly ornate ornament made of hand wrought gold and studded with many gems, suspended from a thick chain and resting on the bare skin just above the low cut bodice, is a "stomacher," whereas the "lavalliere" is light and delicate in construction, is set with not more than three stones and is on a slender chain.

DUBLIN IS VERY ANCIENT.
It May Have Been In Existence In the Time of Ptolemy.
Do you know how old Dublin is? Probably not. Few cities tell their correct age, but there is a rumor that the Irish capital, the picturesque city on the banks of the Liffey, at the entrance to Dublin bay, is much older than she pretends to be. In fact, it has been asserted by some ungallant scholars that she was already a buxom girl when Ptolemy sat on the throne of Egypt and that the fair city on the western island was mentioned in the writings of that day. In later times, say about 212 A. D., it already had a history. When the Danes came, some 600 years later, the Celts had been at peace so long that they fell victims to the invaders, but submission was no part of their program.

The inhabitants of the island are Celtic to the very core, and never have they become reconciled to the idea of sharing their beautiful country with either Saxons, Danes, Teutons or Norse. At one time, when the city of Dublin had become pretty thoroughly English in its feeling, the people of the hill country came down and massacred most of the inhabitants in the year 1170. Richard de Clare, known as Richard Strongbow, the second earl of Pembroke, crossed the Irish channel with a great host and captured the city. But he became governor of the island only after he married the daughter of one of the Celtic kings.—St. Louis Globe Democrat.

Do you know what a lavalliere is? You have seen many neck ornaments of more or less elaborate design suspended from chains that were thin or massive, which were sold as lavallieres. The traveler who knows his business will tell you that the large and highly ornate ornament made of hand wrought gold and studded with many gems, suspended from a thick chain and resting on the bare skin just above the low cut bodice, is a "stomacher," whereas the "lavalliere" is light and delicate in construction, is set with not more than three stones and is on a slender chain.

The heavy ornament was formerly worn on the front of the dress, the entire front part of a bodice, which extended down over the pit of the stomach, being called the stomacher. It was an English mode, whereas the lavalliere came into existence in France in 1666, having been designed at the suggestion of Louis XIV. as a gift to Francoise Louise de la Baume le Blanc, when she was made Duchess de la Valliere. Of all the king's favorites she was the most interesting. She became "queen of the petticoat court" when Louis was but twenty-eight years old and when Colbert and Louvois were making the French treasury and the French army the greatest and most formidable powers in Europe. At thirty she retired to a convent, where she spent her declining years writing that mournful essay, "Reflections on the Pity of God."—Exchange.

DRIVING OFFENSIVE RESUMED BY FRENCH FORCES TEUTONS BACK

Five Miles of German Trenches Fall Into the Hands of the French Forces—British Still Pressing on Longueval—Eastern Army Fighting in Temperature Registering 120° in the Shade.

By Associated Press Dispatch.
London, July 20.—The French have resumed their driving offensive along the Somme, in northern France, forcing the Germans on a wide front both north and south of the river.

According to today's Paris bulletin, the German line trenches from Barleux to Soyecourt, south of the Somme, a distance of five miles, fell into French hands.

North of the river, the French attacked pushed east from Hardecourt and carried trenches along the Combles-Cleary railway.

The operations here are close to the right flank of the British advance, Combles itself being little more than three miles southeast of Longueval, for possession of which British and Germans are still fighting.

The French push forward at Soyecourt marks the furthest southward point carried by the French in their offensive.

Hard fighting continues on the Austro-Italian front, Vienna reports military engagements at various points, increased activity extending west to the Isonzo front.

Near Borcola Pass, the Austrians announce the repulse of three strong attacks, big stones being rolled down the mountainside to stop the Italians.

Last night's fighting in the Verdun region resulted in advantage to the French. Paris reports the capture of a strongly fortified German post near Fleury.

The British expeditionary force in Mesopotamia states that the army is fighting in heat that is 120 degrees in the shade.

nels of communication are restored, stood at 73 today, with 9 persons still missing.

Investigators returning from isolated mountain hamlets, brought the reports that raised the death toll from yesterday's 34.

Property loss also has been heavy, great damage being done to railroads, industrial plants and agricultural interests.

Tennessee, Virginia and West Virginia suffered heavily along with the Carolinas.

It is thought today that $15,000,000 will probably cover all property loss, however.

Efforts were being continued by relief committees to care for flood sufferers, and repair work is being rushed, although it will be weeks before all railroad traffic will be normal.

HAVE VILLA IN THE NET

Report Says the Carranza Troops Are Momentarily Expecting to Take Villa.

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Chihuahua City, Mexico, July 20.

Villa and his main band were in the vicinity of Amador, about 30 miles south of the Durango line, today, according to authentic reports to General Trevino.

General Trevino announced that the band, consisting of 800 men, is surrounded.

Four thousand men, largely cavalry, have been dispatched to reinforce the pursuers of the bandits.

It is believed Villa will attempt to break through the line to the southward.

Most of the reinforcements are being sent to that point.

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Galveston, Texas, July 20.—The capture of Francisco Villa by cavalry of the de facto Government is momentarily expected, according to a cablegram received here by Juan A. Mateos, Mexican consul here.

The message said a Villa messenger, captured yesterday by Carranza troops, told of Villa's whereabouts, and that a force had been sent to capture him.

ably will be established if this is possible.

ALL READY TO DEPART

Deutschland Loaded With Full Cargo Is Ready for Dash—Tugs and Barges Screen the Visitor From Gaze of Curious.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Baltimore, Md., July 20.—At dawn today a screen of tugs and barges was drawn about the submarine merchantman Deutschland, indicating that she would not leave here for several hours at least.

To all appearances, she is ready to start on her return voyage to Germany.

This morning, just as she was hidden from view, it was observed that she was submerged to about the same depth as when she came into port with full cargo.

Yesterday a force of mechanics went aboard the submarine to help the crew overhaul the engines.

It is thought probable that further testing of the machinery may be made before she takes her departure.

All through the night the tug Timmins played its searchlight ceaselessly over land and water, practically covering all approaches to the pier.

About midnight the vigilance of the German guard about the pier tightened.

Several launches were found hovering about the water near the submarine, and while the Timmins threw its searchlight up on these strange craft, the night superintendent of the Eastern Forwarding Company jumped into a motor boat and made a long tour of the waters about the pier, to inspect the mysterious visitors.

As though prepared to leave port at any moment, Captain Paul Koenig, commander of the Deutschland, put on his uniform today for the first time since he landed, eleven days ago.

Captain Koenig said he would not leave his ship again and indicated an early departure, but would give no idea just when the submarine will leave.

ONLY NEEDS WILSON "O. K."

Announcement That Conference Has Agreed to Submit Dispute With Mexico to Commission.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, July 20.—Announcement that settlement of differences between the United States and Mexico will be made through a joint commission is looked for in the immediate future.

Only final approval by President Wilson and General Carranza is lacking, it was stated today.

Powers to be conferred on a commission have formed one of the chief points of discussion in preliminary negotiations between Acting Secretary Polk and Eliseo Arredondo, Mexican Ambassador designate.

Mr. Polk intends to take the question up with President Wilson at once.

Henry P. Fletcher, American Ambassador designate to Mexico, will go to his post in Mexico City soon after August 1, if the situation continues to clear up, it was announced today.

CHICAGO PROBES FOR SUBNORMALS

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Chicago, July 20.—A complete survey of Cook County with regard to subnormal mind condition will be undertaken beginning August 1.

This development was announced today, and came as an aftermath to the tragedy of Tuesday, in which Henry P. McIntyre, the negro fanatic, was responsible for the death of six persons, including himself and wife.

The survey is to be conducted by the Rockefeller Institute, and following it, legislation to meet conditions will be drafted and suggested to the Illinois Legislature.

It is stated that the proposed action is a step toward the elimination from society of half wits and subnormal people.

HEAT!

Columbus, O., July 20.—One death and three prostrations from heat is the record of the past 24 hours of high temperature, which is expected to be broken today by thunderstorms.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, July 20.—President Wilson today received a request from Henry Morgenthau, former Ambassador to Turkey, and several other New Yorkers, asking for Federal intervention in the cloak makers' strike which has been in progress in New York City for 12 weeks.

The President forwarded the request to the Department of Labor, with instructions that the Bureau of Conciliation make an effort to end the strike.

The remains will be taken to the Presbyterian church shortly before noon Sunday, where friends may view them until the funeral hour at two o'clock. Burial will be made in the Greenfield cemetery.

THIRD OF CROP IN THIS COUNTY

One local grain dealer estimates the total yield of wheat this year at not to exceed one-third of an average yield, and states that virtually all threshing will be completed this week.

The dealer states that the acreage not harvested was very large, in addition to much wheat plowed up in the spring, and that the average yield harvested will not exceed 10 bushels to the acre.

The wheat being received at the elevators is usually of good quality and the price being paid is $1.06, or approximately the price paid last year at this time.

Threshing opened up last week and the machines will find little to do after this week.

OIL IS APPLIED TO TEMPLE STREET

A motor truck, force oiler is now in use in the city oiling some of the streets where the residents have grown weary of clouds of unsanitary dust.

Temple street, west of North, is receiving a coat of oil which is applied with such force that it is evenly distributed over the street surface.

East Temple, East Market and one or two other streets have been oiled.

MARRIAGE BY MAIL: UNITED SOLDIER AND NEW JERSEY GIRL

The Bride and Bridegroom in Unique Ceremony.

Private Louis Bansemmer, Company H, First regiment, New Jersey national guard, appeared before Notary Edward C. Bradford at headquarters, Douglas, Ariz., and signed a marriage contract with Miss Ethel Maud Sergeant of 60 Peck avenue, Newark. The papers were sent to Newark. First Sergeant J. C. Clark of Company H acted as witness. The company gave Bansemmer a wedding breakfast of salt pork at 5 o'clock in the morning. Then the bridegroom went digging trenches. When the New Jersey troops were sent from Sea Girt to the border Miss Sergeant and Private Bansemmer tried to be married by proxy, but when they were informed such a ceremony would have nothing more than a sentimental value and would not be binding legally they made arrangements to be married by mail. On July 6 Miss Sergeant appeared before a notary public in Newark, N. J., and signed a marriage contract. This was sent at once by registered mail to Bansemmer at Douglas. Both her lawyer and Marriage Clerk Crissey at the Newark city hall declared such a procedure was perfectly legal and binding.

OATNEAL TO SPEAK IN COLUMBUS TONIGHT

Attorney J. T. Oatneal of this city and Hon. Daniel Ryan will address a large mass meeting of the colored voters of Columbus tonight in the interests of Hon. H. M. Daugherty for United States Senator.

The meeting is expected to be one of the largest colored Republican rallies held in Columbus for many a day.

SWINE PLAGUE IS COSTLY IN GREENE

Over $65,000 in cold cash, represents Greene county's toll paid to the demon of hog cholera in 1915. Nine thousand and eight-nine hogs fell victim to the disease, representing a total value of $65,119.

These figures, compiled from returns made by the personal property assessors, show that it is not the hoof and mouth disease which menaces the local stock business, but a contagion of which the state takes little account, and exercises small precaution to stay.

Three hundred and eighty-one Greene county farms were infected by cholera in 1915. Ross township contributed the largest number of victims to the disease, 1916, upon which owners estimate their loss as $13,790. In Miami township, 1373 swine died, at a loss to their owners of $10,382, and Xenia township furnished the third highest number of victims, 1110, valued at $9,385.—Xenia Gazette.

HEAVY STORM

A storm of great violence swept over part of Ross county Tuesday night, doing thousands of dollars' worth of damage to stock, buildings, fences, crops, etc.

The storm lasted for some little time and swept up from the south hanging over upper Ross county for sometime.

RAINS ALL AROUND DURING 24 HOURS

Many parts of Fayette county have enjoyed soaking rains during the past day or two, while it has rained on all sides of Washington, hardly a drop has fallen in this city during that time.

Wednesday about the noon hour a heavy rain fell a few miles west and southwest of this city, and about the same time northern Fayette received a heavy rain which was very much needed.

The previous night the rainfall south and east of the city was just what was needed to assist the growing crops which were very much in need of an abundance of moisture.

NEW LIMITED SHOWS OUTBURST OF SPEED

The "Capital City Limited," on the B. & O. left Columbus 25 minutes late one day this week, and while the schedule is a fast one, ten minutes were clipped off the schedule between Columbus and Wilmington, and another ten between Wilmington and Cincinnati. A delay of several minutes resulted in the outskirts of Cincinnati or the limited would have reached the Queen City on time.

For speed the new limiteds easily outdistance any other trains on the road.

WOMEN WILL USE "Y" SWIMMING POOL

At a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Y. M. C. A. held Wednesday afternoon, a departure was made to become effective next week and remain in force until January 1, 1917.

The innovation is the granting of the use of the "Y" swimming pool to the women two days out of each week, and three or more classes will be organized and enjoy the big pool. The classes will be small girls, large girls and women.

TOUGH MEDICINE

(By American Press)

Geneva, O., July 20.—Mostly skin and bones, Dr. H. G. Huffman, Youngstown dentist, is now on the twentieth day of his third annual fast. Three years ago Dr. Huffman fasted forty-seven days and regained his health when physicians said he would die in a few months of stomach trouble. Last year the dentist went without food, drinking only spring water, for thirty-one days, at his river camp near here. Dr. Huffman believes that starvation is nature's way of throwing off bodily poisons. Hunger disappeared after the fourth day, he said, but when it shows signs of returning he will end his fast.

Since the Grand Duke Nicholas assumed command in the Caucasus and began his offensive, the Russians have moved many thousands of troops to the Caucasus by steamer rather than by marches overland.

The Band Concert

Two important facts were conclusively demonstrated by the open air free concert given by the Washington band in front of the court house Tuesday evening.

The first, and most important of all, perhaps, is the fact that this city has more than the nucleus for a really splendid band—it has a good band right now and the members have fought their own way to the present high plane of efficiency almost single handed. They have asked no assistance until they were able to deliver "the real goods" in the line of musical entertainment. They are ready now to give the people more than, a good many folks, were expecting to receive.

The second fact conclusively demonstrated Tuesday and yesterday less important than the first is that the people of Washington and Fayette county want a good band here, want band concerts and will appreciate and patronize open air concerts.

All quarters of the city and every part of the rural sections, furnished its full quota to swell the crowd which came and heard, was convinced and delighted Tuesday night.

With all due respect to the Greenfield band, our own boys have conclusively demonstrated that with a little encouragement they are destined to have an organization that will rival with our neighbor to the south for popular favor in this section of the state.

The determination which the members of the local band have shown in taking up their work and sticking everlastingly at it is proof that they possess the real talent and love for music which guarantee in a short time a famous band.

No business man questions the vast amount of good a city derives from the possession of a good band.

Washington congratulates itself on the possession of its band—it needs congratulation more than the band. The emphatic approval given Tuesday night's concert by the delighted crowds from home and abroad has given the band boys a line on themselves.

The Farm Credit Law

When President Wilson affixed his signature to the new farm credit law, the splendid financial system which the present national administration has given to the people of the United States was extended and bettered.

The change in this country from the most antiquated and insufficient financial system in the world to the very best has been accomplished without any serious disarrangement of business conditions. In fact the change was made so quietly and so unostentatiously and so sufficient, under all strains, has the present system proven itself to be, that perhaps the majority of people fail to realize the revolutionary change that has been wrought.

For this nation to have gone through the business and financial crises which have come upon us, in the last few years, without a paralyzing money panic, under the old system would have been impossible.

Under the present system not a jar occurred to interrupt the serenity of the financial world.

The rural credits law is yet to demonstrate its efficiency. If, in that respect, it proves to be a fit companion law to the regional bank law another marked advance for the people will have been recorded.

Again Why the Sharks?

The gulf stream is responsible for a great deal, but there are many conditions unjustly charged up against that warm current of water which flows out of the Gulf of Mexico, north along the Atlantic coast about three hundred miles off shore until Cape Hatteras forces it northeastward to give England and France a temperate climate.

Now more than one experienced navigator is asserting that the visits of man-eating sharks to coast waters and inland streams is due to the fact that the warm current of the gulf stream has concluded to wander away from the established paths it has followed for centuries and go scouting around the bathing beaches and up the inland streams of New Jersey.

We can't believe that the gulf stream has done anything of the sort. We adhere to the belief that the gulf stream is "not in his ways."

Years ago some ambitious engineers wanted to dig a canal and let part of the Mediterranean Sea into the Sahara desert, converting the sand wastes into a great inland sea. Timid humanity concluded that the consumption of such a project would change the climate of southern Europe. No one knows whether it would or not. It was never tried.

We do know that the opening of the Suez Canal did not change the climate of southern Europe or that of the north corner of Asia.

So far the opening of the Panama Canal has not changed climatic conditions of the western hemisphere, unless the explanation of the sharks' appearance is correct.

We prefer to believe that the gulf stream is true to the great service of the centuries and to blame the appearance of the sharks on the disturbances man is creating.

Poetry For Today

THE REGULAR MAN.

Here's to the Regular Man,
Here's to his valor and brawn,
The Regular, Regular Army man
With his bone and sinew on!
The veteran wise and true.
And the big-boned youngster, too;
The Regulars, most of 'em deep in dreams
Of the battles that die in a mist of gleams,
And years of the sorrow, the ache and care,
The long campaigns, and the danger there!

Here's to his courage and skill,
Here's to his duty and zeal;
Here's to the force of his manly will,
The dead-true aim of his steel!
The Regular Army Man,
The first to ride to the crest
Of the trouble and muddle when war begins,
With a brave heart pounding his hairy breast—
And a mouth that is made of grins!

Here's to the Regular Man,
And over and over to him—
The man who has seen and known,
The man who is skin and bone,
But under the surface that's hard and grim
Soft and tender and broad and sweet,
A father and husband that's hard to beat,
Soldier and citizen, hero and knight
Ready in cold and ready in heat,
To spring to the saddle, and fight!

PETTING SPOILS FIRE HORSE.

Loses Love of Work as a Result of Pampering by Women Visitors.

San Francisco.—Dick, the veteran fire horse which crashed through a Market street store window some weeks ago, will never again be fitted for fire service.

Veterinary surgeons declare he has regained his former strength and vigor, but his mental attitude has changed through pampering by women visitors and other sympathizers during his sojourn in the hospital, and he now refuses even to look at a fire engine.

Dick has been so "spoiled" that no amount of persuasion can induce him to return to work.

He told the prisoner the chief wanted the money for safe keeping. Bennett discovered his loss when he found the real janitor was a negro, while the flimflammer was a white man.

SUFFER AT BORDER

Heat is Hard For Unacclimated Guardsmen.

MANY DISCOMFORTS AHEAD.

But There is a Wide Variety of Scenery and Much to Interest the Volunteers Who Are Doing Patrol Duty. Lower Part of Border Will Fascinate the Recruits.

San Antonio, Tex.—Campaigning upon the Mexican border is no pleasant picnic in these hot summer days for the thousands of unacclimated men from the northern states. Notwithstanding the many discomforts that will be encountered by the raw and unseasoned military men they will find portions of the frontier region full of fascinating interest. This is particularly true of that part of the border which extends from the mouth of the Rio Grande along the course of that stream for more than 600 miles. When the upper reaches of the Rio Grande begin to break into a rough, barren, monotonous country that runs westward all the way to the Pacific ocean the wild beauty and striking strangeness that characterize the lower border begin to wane.

There is a marked difference in the summer climate of the various points along the border, due to the varying altitude and the nearness of the ocean.

SOLDIER'S IMPROVED HUT TO PROTECT HIM FROM HEAT.

Many people would suppose that Brownsville, situated far down toward the tropics and within twenty-five miles of the mouth of the Rio Grande, would be a veritable inferno during the hot weather months. Just the contrary is true. The climate there in summer is delightful. The ever blowing trade winds sweep inward from the gulf of Mexico, tempering the heat of the sun. The effect of the gulf "breeze" is felt along the Rio Grande for more than 200 miles.

The towns and military stations of Harlingen, Mercedes, Donna, Mission, McAllen, Sanford, Hidalgo, San Benito, Edinburg, Rio Grande City, Roma, Zapata, Laredo, Port Brown, Fort Ringgold and Fort McIntosh are all within the zone that is tempered by the constantly blowing breeze from the gulf. From Laredo all the way west to the Pacific ocean the summer temperature varies in intensity. The breeze that usually blows from the mountains of the states of Coahuila and Tamaulipas has a cooling effect upon the climate of the border from Laredo to the edge of the Big Bend country, taking in the towns of Eagle Pass and Del Rio.

If there is anything that the soldier from other states fervently hopes for above others it is that he be kept out of the Big Bend region. From now on until November an almost steady temperature ranging from 110 to 120 in the shade can be counted on. There is not a tree or shrub to break the terrific rays of the sun.

Most of the larger cities of Mexico are well situated at altitudes ranging from 3,000 to 7,000 feet. Saltillo, Durango, Zacatecas, Aguas Calientes, San Luis Potosi, Puebla, Pachuca, City of Mexico, Guadalajara, Oaxaca, Morelia and many other cities and towns have delightful summer climates, while the temperature in winter is mild and pleasant. The climate of Monterey and Torreon is hot, but not oppressively so. The gulf coast cities of Tampico, Vera Cruz, Cotacacoalcos, Tuxpan and Progreso are refreshed by cooling breezes. The same is true of the Pacific coast cities of Guaymas, Mazatlan, Manzanilla, Acapulco and Salina Cruz.

The climate of the border towns of Columbus, N. M.; Douglas, Naco and Nogales, Ariz., is not as unbearable in summer as one who has not gone through a living experience upon that part of the border might suppose. The nights are usually pleasant and the days are relieved by a breeze from the mountains. The region, however, is desolate and uninviting.

It is the mystery of the chaparral covered region of the lower Rio Grande border that appeals most to the average visitor to the frontier. Upon both sides of the international boundary stream the low growing mesquite trees, cat claws, prickly pear and innumerable other varieties of thorny shrubs and plants form an almost impenetrable wilderness.

Days You'll Never Forget

HIS LUCKY NUMBER 13.

Farmer Tells How Mystic Numerals Stuck to Him.

Live Oak, Cal.—No matter how other people may feel about the number 13, Howard Grimes of Douglas county, Ore., considers it a messenger of good luck rather than a harbinger of evil.

Grimes was in Live Oak recently on his way to Davis, where, although he is sixty-four years of age, he is taking a course in agriculture.

On the back of his auto hung its license No. 1313. When reminded of its hoodoo proclivities the Oregonian smiled and volunteered a bit of history.

"I was born on Sept. 13, 1852," said he, "and was the thirteenth child in the family brood. When thirteen years old I left home to make my fortune. At twenty I married, and our wedding fell on the 13th of the month.

"While riding a Northern Pacific train in 1912 I was in berth 13 and the train was wrecked. Every occupant in that car was injured but myself. In 1913 I made a little investment in mining property and cleaned up $10,000. I took the money and purchased $1,300 acres of land, and I am farming a part of it and learning a law to farm it better."

MUST BE EIGHTEEN TO DANCE.

Girls if Younger Must Have Guardian's Permission.

Cleveland.—Girls who pride themselves on how young they look will have to take along their birth certificates when they go dancing at municipal dancing halls.

Those who can prove they're more than eighteen may keep on dancing after 9 o'clock. Those who not only look younger than eighteen and really are will have to press into service a parent or a guardian. No, no such luck. Any Tom, Dick or Harry won't do as a guardian. The powers that be won't put up with it. The guardian has to be a regular guardian, manufactured by a court of justice.

City Dance Hall Inspector John, dance hall chaperons and dancing masters got together at a meeting in the city hall recently and tried to have the "younger set" barred from the floors after 9 o'clock, parents or guardians notwithstanding.

GET $8,000 FOR KINDNESS.

Boy and Girl Rewarded For Favors to Invalid Woman.

Pittsburgh.—Henry Paul McPeake of this city and his sister, Miss Lois McPeake of Canonsburg, have just been made aware that it pays to be kind to an old invalid lady, in the fact that her will, filed for probate here, provides for the boy in the sum of $5,000 and $3,000 to his sister.

Some years ago when Mrs. Anna Sutton Leech, a wealthy resident of Pittsburgh, was at a sanitarium at Markleton there was also there as a patient young McPeake, who is a son of George C. McPeake, Republican nominee for the legislature in Washington county, and when Lois came to visit her brother they got acquainted with the lonely widow. Between them they contributed to make life a little pleasanter for Mrs. Leech, and she promised not to forget them. She died recently.

Used to It.

"I am thinking of buying a couple more lots next to the one my house is on."

"Seems to me you've got a pretty big plot as it is."

"I know, but the mortgage is nearly paid off and I've got to have something to worry about."—Exchange.

Graded Down.

Great is America! People of means may hear the world's greatest voices for $10; those in moderate circumstances may obtain phonographic records of the same voices for $2.50, while the very poor can see the same singers act in the movies for a dime.—Life.

FISH AND GAME ASSOCIATION IS UP IN ARMS

Indications are that the case in which ten well known men of Sabina and environs are accused of illegal fishing, as a result of a visit made by Deputy State Game Warden Frank Hard to a point near Beuna Vista where he brought back a 95 foot sein, the party had in use, will prove an interesting one before it is ended.

The sein was found last Friday, and this week, after communicating with General Speaks, Deputy Hard went before Justice Craig and filed affidavits against 10 men, including Clinton County's Warden, H. D. Pavvey, charging them with illegal fishing.

It is stated that one or more of the accused made several trips to Columbus, and upon representations that they were seining for carp to be placed in a pond, made to General Speaks or the Board of Agriculture, or both, orders were issued to drop the charges, "for the present."

The men had been cited to appear before Justice Craig at nine o'clock Thursday morning, following their failure to show up the previous day, but when the orders from his chief arrived, Deputy Hard complied with orders of the Board and notified the men not to appear.

When officers of the Fayette Fish and Game Protective Association were informed that the Board of Agriculture had issued orders to stop the prosecutions, the affair aroused their ire, and the Association is now determined to see the matter through to a finish.

As a result a special meeting of the Association will be held at Attorney H. M. Rankin's office at seven o'clock tonight, and some definite action may be taken.

HOTEL MEN IN CONCLAVE

A number of prominent hotel men of this section of the state enjoyed a banquet and business meeting at the Cherry Hotel, Thursday, taking up the project of changing the hotels under their management from the American to the European plan.

This change is being generally made and the American plan is rapidly being abolished for the more popular European plan.

Mine host C. H. Griffis, of the Cherry, entertained the guests with his accustomed geniality and took an active part in the new movement.

The following hotel men were in attendance:

AUSPICIOUS OPENING OF CHAUTAUQUA

Afternoon Program Delights Large Audience, and Tonight's Program Offers Additional Pleasures—Ticket Sale Large.

The greatest chautauqua ever given in this part of the state is now under way, and the crowd at the opening session was pleasing to the management and the program offered was pleasing to the audience. The advance ticket sale has been very satisfactory, and the Junior Chautauqua held in conjunction with the regular chautauqua, gives promise of being a thorough success. Thursday afternoon Supt. Chas. S. Pilkington, a very fluent speaker, delivered a ten minute address, teeming with wit and impressing upon the audience the benefits derived from such a chautauqua as that offered this year.

Following the address Colangelo's Famous Italian Musicians, an organization which renders strictly high class music, and which contains a number of gifted soloists, entertained the audience with an exceptionally brilliant concert. The organization is composed of master musicians from the shores of sunny Italy, and the audience tonight will have another opportunity of feasting upon the delightful harmony produced by Colangelo's musicians. In addition to the concert by Colangelo's Musicians tonight at eight o'clock, Dr. G. Whitfield Ray, F. R. G. S. will give a new illustrated lecture of absorbing interest. Dr. Ray is a genuine Globe Trotter and in a most entertaining way gives his auditors the benefit of his travels.

Another feature of the evening's program will be "Chronophotographs" by Freeman Fisk, and the results of his afternoon's work will be shown on the screen. The Boston Entertainers, and Dr.

J. Whitcomb Brouger are the attractions Friday afternoon, and come recommended as the best in their respective lines.

In Social Circles

The Presbyterian Ladies' Missionary Society held a meeting of full numbers yesterday and of very great interest at the home of Mrs. J. M. Minturn; assisting hostesses Mesdames A. C. Henkle, B. F. Davis, Sever, Hadley, Stitt, Blackmore, Mayer, Bryant, Chas. McLean, Chas. Gage, Wm. Springer, Williams, Sheets; Misses Veal, Kinzer, Harvey and Grey.

The motto of the day was, "The first work of the whole world, is to give the gospel to the whole world." In connection with the opening of the program in charge of Mrs. Klever, the secretary, Mrs. Woodward, read most interesting letters from special missionary workers Mrs. Candor in Bogota, S. A., and Dr. Ames in Tsinning, China.

The society decided to make their box work this year for the Dwight School in Oklahoma.

Mrs. Harry Sprenger gave a paper on "Young Missionaries who Become Famous," beginning with the Scotch Cobbler Cary whose life became such a record and bringing in something of the lives of such workers as Robt. Morrison, Livingston, Thorburn and others. This was full of interest as also was Mrs. Hopkins' report of the last Presbyterian General Assembly at Atlantic City.

There was indeed an inspiration from the president's vivid portrayal of this great meeting celebrating its 128th anniversary and with eight hundred and eighty six commissioners attending the ten days' service. The Woman's Board lent most valuable aid especially in reports given such as the one on the Panama Congress and the Regional Conference at Baranquilla.

A pleasurable social hour, with refreshments closed the afternoon.

IT STICKS THROUGH SENATE

Unsuccessful Fight Waged Against It.

OLIVER AND PENROSE LOSE

Attack On the General Preparedness Program Made by LaFollette, Who Discusses the Naval Bill—Holds That Conditions Confronting the Nation Do Not Warrant Navy Increases—Day in the Senate.

Washington, July 20.—Holding the general preparedness program the product of agitation by moneyed interests, aided by the metropolitan press, Senator LaFollette attacked the naval appropriation bill.

Most of the session was taken up with an unsuccessful fight by Senators Oliver and Penrose on the section of the bill providing for a $11,000,000 government armor plant. By a vote of 51 to 17 the senate defeated a motion to strike out the section, and then voted down, 43 to 16, the Oliver amendment to refer the armor controversy to the federal trade commission for settlement.

Senator LaFollette contended vigorously that neither conditions confronting the nation nor the testimony given before the congressional naval committees warranted the proposed navy increases.

"A total of $844,000,000 is the load that goes on the bended backs of the American people," he declared. "Why is this to be done? If it is necessary now, why was it not necessary four years ago? You knew then what was the naval and military strength of all of the foreign countries, but the interests had not been appealed to then. Bethlehem Steel at 40 was not Bethlehem Steel at 940. The interests behind this preparedness plan do not fear Germany or England. The plan merely fits into their imperialistic schemes."

The senator charged that men had been forced into preparedness parades under threats of having their wages reduced. Workingmen in Washington, he said, had told him they marched in the demonstration here for that reason. The larger newspapers of the country, he declared, were influenced by the advertising of the "interests" behind the preparedness propaganda to devote most space to the testimony of witnesses before the congressional committees who favored preparedness.

"A cheapness of a business man can get a column and a half on the front page if he will boost preparedness," he shouted, "but General Weaver, who speaks against it, can not get a line."

Senator LaFollette quoted voluminously from reports of the committee hearings to prove that the navy is in better shape than preparedness advocates make it appear. He insisted that it is stronger than Germany's navy and pointed out that Germany, with a navy about half as large as England's, had been able to prevent an invasion of her territory.

Senators Oliver and Penrose, speaking against the armor plate plant proposal, insisted that it simply would mean a waste of money now that the Bethlehem Steel company has offered to furnish plate at a price to be set by the federal trade commission.

Senator Harding voted in favor of striking out of the naval appropriation bill the provision for establishment of a government armor plate factory. "I have a conviction," he said, "that everything the government is doing has a tendency to increase the cost of production."

OFFICIAL PHOTOS SHOW HOW BRITISH AT KUT HELD OUT UNTIL NEAR STARVATION

Striking testimony to the grim Townsend and his gallant troops at Kut-el-Amara had held out in the face of suffering and privation was afforded by the emaciated condition of the sick and wounded men who were magnanimously permitted by the Turkish commander to be sent through to the British lines in order to receive adequate medical attention. The larger picture here-with shows Indian "walking cases" tenderly assisted by a line of helpers. The inserted picture depicts a Red Cross orderly carrying a very youthful British soldier on his back to the hospital tents.

LOOKS LIKE 'J. FRANK' NOW

Indiana Man Likely to Head the Dry Ticket.

St. Paul, July 20.—The nomination of J. Frank Hanly of Indiana as the presidential candidate of the Prohibition party was confidently predicted by friends of Hanly and leaders of the so-called organization forces in the Prohibition national convention, following the unanimous re-election of Virgil G. Hinshaw of Chicago to the chairmanship of the national committee. Hanly's chief opponent is ex-Governor Sulzer of New York.

Further impetus was given the Hanly candidacy by the selection of Robert H. Patton of Springfield, Ill., as permanent chairman, leaders of both forces admitted. Howard Kerschner of Topeka was named permanent secretary.

Temporary Chairman Poling in the keynote address, attacked militarism and the preparedness programs of the Democratic and Republican parties. The delegates cheered his remarks.

A Sulzer meeting was the signal for the unmasking of the batteries of the Sulzer and Hanly forces and bitter debates took place in hotel lobbies in which the New Yorker's followers accused Hanly of trying to seize control of the party, while Hanly's adherents charged Sulzer with accepting the support of the liquor interests in his candidacy for the Prohibition nomination.

OUT AND IN

(By American Press)

Baltimore, July 20.—The submarine Deutschland will, it is believed, depart soon from this port. There is evidence that the vessel is ready to make the dash for Germany. The berth now occupied by the Deutschland will be taken by her sister submarine, the Bremen, which, it was said authoritatively, will arrive in Chesapeake bay next Sunday. A large amount of provisions has been taken aboard the Deutschland and the long awaited consignment of fuel oil has arrived. Every attempt at secrecy is still being made. The much discussed bag of mail from the German embassy has been turned over to Captain Koenig.

At midnight the two spars of the Deutschland were taken down and the conning tower closed.

New York, July 20.—The new French loan of $10,000,000 has been offered to the investing public. A syndicate of about a score of banking houses in Chicago, New York, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, headed by J. P. Morgan & Company, is arranging the loan. The bonds will bear 5 per cent interest and will cost $98.

J. B.'S NEW LOAN

(By American Press)

London, July 20.—Another vote of credit will be asked for next week, the premier informed the house of commons. It will be the eleventh vote since the outbreak of the war and probably will be for $1,500,000,000, the same amount as the last one. This will bring up the total for the war to $13,410,000,000.

4,000 MEN WEEDED OUT

Will Be Week, Perhaps a Month, Before Guardsmen Move.

Columbus, July 20.—If Ohio regiments are to be fitted out with equipment "C" before leaving for the border, it probably will be at least a week, perhaps a month, before any Buckeye troops entrain. Colonel Duffy, quartermaster general, said that no railroad cars to haul troops to the border will be in Columbus for a week, under present orders.

After having weeded out nearly 4,000 of the 12,000 Ohio guardsmen who reported to the Upper Arlington mobilization camp, federal examiners expect to complete their work late today.

The population of Camp Willis has been reduced from about 13,000 soldiers to 8,359 by physical examinations, the mustering out of married men and desertions. Men absent without leave who are brought back to camp are being fined $2 and given two days at hard labor. Those caught and brought back after an absence of ten days or more will be court-martialed and possibly given a term in the federal pen at Fort Leavenworth.

Colonel J. Guy Deming of the Second regiment reports that one captain, G. M. Radabaugh of Company K, St. Marys, and a number of the Second's lieutenants, were eliminated by the examiners.

A record was broken when three companies of the Second, C of Lima, L of Sycamore and I of Kenton, got by without a man being disqualified because of eyesight.

War department officials wired that by the time the Ohio troops are ready to go to the border there will be tourist sleepers for all. These sleepers will not all be at Camp Willis, awaiting the order to send the troops, but they can be assembled on short notice.

Ohio troops will be paid at Columbus before leaving for the border. This was the positive conclusion reached by Senator Pomerene in a conference he had with Secretary of War Baker.

NOT FIGHTING ON SOMME

No Let-Up to the Struggle Between the Germans and the Anglo-French Forces—Russians Hammering Austro-German Lines On the Eastern Front—Turks and Slavs Engaged in Asia Minor.

London, July 20.—There has been no abatement in the sanguinary struggle between the British and Germans north of the Somme, which began Tuesday, after a German bombardment and an attack by heavy infantry forces which gave to the Teutons the village of Longueval and Delville wood.

In counter attacks the British succeeded in regaining most of the territory they had lost, and, in addition, dispersed with their artillery fire a large body of Germans who were massing for another attack to the south of Delville wood. Hard fighting is still going on in this sector. To the south of the Somme the French report the capture of several German trenches.

Around Verdun, in the region of Hill 304 and on the Fleury sector, the Germans are heavily bombarding the French positions, probably presaging the usual infantry attacks.

In the vicinity of Riga the Russians are still hammering hard Field Marshal Von Hindenburg's forces, but according to Berlin all their attacks thus far have failed, with heavy losses. Further south, in Volhynia, the Russians along the Stokhod river and to the west and southwest of Lutsk, are heavily bombarding the positions of the Teutonic allies.

While Petrograd asserts that the Russians in Galicia are advancing toward the passes of the Carpathian mountains, leading to the plains of Hungary, Vienna says that southwest of Delatyn the Austrians have driven the Russians back across the River Pruth.

German naval aircraft have dropped a large number of bombs on Reval, in the Gulf of Finland, causing, according to Berlin, damage to Russian cruisers, troop boats and submarines in the gulf and to military establishments on land.

In Asia Minor, south of Trebizond, additional gains for the Russians against the Turks are chronicled by Petrograd, while Constantinople reports slight successes for the Turkish arms against the British along the Euphrates river and north of the Persian gulf near Basra. In addition, the Turks are declared to have defeated the Italians in northern Tripoli at Misratah.

CALENDAR OF THE TURKS.

Its Oriental Simplicity Is Fairly Madening to Strangers.

The Turks count their day from one sunset to the next sunset, dividing the twenty-four hours into twelve, as we do. This is plain sailing, but unfortunately sunset does not fall at the same hour day after day, and there ensue horrible complications to the innocent European.

By way presumably of jest the Turkish steamers follow Turkish and their railways Frankish time. Probably many a good man has ended his life in a lunatic asylum after a frantic attempt to reconcile the two. The pampered rich have watches specially constructed with two dials, one showing each time.

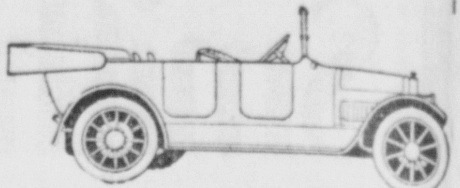

Apparently some enterprising Osmanli thought that the Turkish calendar erred on the side of simplicity and kindly invented a new complication. The Mohammedan year dates from the flight of the prophet in the seventeenth century. Each year the first month, Mahairan, comes eleven days earlier, so the months do not mark the seasons like ours.

There is one more section for the benefit of the Turkish peasant, who in his rural retreats knows nothing of months. For him the year is composed of two seasons—hidrahis, beginning on May 6, and kassin, beginning Nov. 7—so to him April 20 is the one hundred and sixty-fourth day of kassin.—London Standard.

A POLITICAL "BOOM."

How the Idea of the Expression Came to Its First User.

The word "boom," as applied to a political movement, so far as known, was first used by the editor of a Republican newspaper in St. Louis, Mo., pending the return of General U. S. Grant from the trip around the world undertaken by him in 1876, immediately following his retirement from the presidency of the United States.

The term was used so persistently and so cleverly that it soon began to lodge in popular thought and to take on the meaning which the editor intended to convey when he declared that the movement looking to a third term for Grant was "booming," or when he employed the invention as a noun and spoke of "the Grant boom."

The idea had come to him from a common expression used by the people along the Mississippi river. When that stream was at floodtide and sweeping everything before it it was said to be "booming." The St. Louis editor aimed to convey the thought that the movement for the nomination of Grant for the presidency in 1880 was like the onward sweep of a great river under such conditions, and therefore a boom.

The term soon came into general use and has been applied in the United States ever since, alike to spontaneous and preconcerted or organized movements looking to the placing of some person in an office of importance, not necessarily, but generally, the presidency.—Christian Science Monitor.

The "S O S" Call.

The original wireless signal of distress at sea, "C Q D," was adapted from the old "all stations" or general call of line telegraphy. But at the first international wireless congress it was suggested and approved that a better call was "S O S," which, by its arrangement of dots and dashes, is different from any other call.

"S O S" has no special meaning. It is not intended to express "Save our souls" or anything else equally dramatic. This call is an international one and has the same meaning in all languages.

SHAKESPEARE'S WORKS.

The Precious First Edition Quartos Are Now Next to Priceless.

Few literary prophecies have been so strikingly fulfilled as that of the "neuer writer" who in the preface which followed the revised title of the first edition of "Troilus and Cressida" (1609) predicted of Shakespeare that "when he is gone and his commodities out of sale you will scramble for them and set up a new English inquisition."

The number of first editions in quarto of Shakespeare's plays now known to exist is 144, with two fragments, of which eighty are in public ownership and sixty-four in private ownership. These volumes are worth not merely their weight in gold, but their weight in banknotes of high denominations. They represent sixteen different plays, two of them having double texts, making an average of eight copies of each, and those which were most popular having already been pirated—"Romeo and Juliet," the first "Hamlet," "Henry V." and the "Merry Wives"—master only seventeen copies among them.

The authors of "A Census of Shakespeare's Plays in Quarto, 1594-1709" (Yale University Press), Henrietta Bartlett and Alfred Pollard, estimate that most of Shakespeare's plays printed in quarto received editions of 1,200 copies each. The wear and tear of the centuries has thus disposed of many thousands of these priceless books. The total is much larger if we add the quartos which appeared after the first editions, but before the "authorized" folio editions of 1623, issued by Shakespeare's colleagues of the theater. The survivors alone of these intermediate quartos number 301 copies, of which 144 are in public and 157 in private ownership.—New York Post.

VATICAN HAS SHIP

For First Time Since 1870 Papal Flag Flies Over Steamer.

TO CONVEY REPRESENTATIVES

Painted With White and Yellow Stripes—Safety Said to Be Guaranteed—Reported Von Buelow Believed Best Way to Punish Italy Was to Restore Temporal Power to Pope.

Rome.—For the first time since 1870 the Papal flag is flying over a steamer owned by the Vatican, and strangely enough, it is sheltered in the Civita Vecchia harbor with the consent of the government at Rome. When United Italy under Victor Emmanuel II. established the house of Savoy at Rome in 1870, the pope was deprived of all power and position as a sovereign. He became a voluntary prisoner in the Vatican, while the king housed his court in the former papal palace of the Quirinal. As every king has been a devoted Catholic, the enmity between the king and pope has been a political expediency, a fiction in fact. Loyalty to the Catholic church on the part of influential members of the Italian cabinet, combined with the fear of German submarines, has brought to the pope the privilege of flying his own flag once more in Italian waters. The steamer has been bought by the Vatican to convey officials of the Catholic church whom the pope desires to send abroad as his representatives. The first voyage will be to South America, to convey the new papal nuncio, Mgr. Bassallo di Torregrossa, to Buenos Aires.

The steamer, to be known as the Nuncio, is painted with broad white and yellow stripes easily distinguished by submarines. Its safety is guaranteed, it is understood, by one of those secret agreements with Germany of which the papacy has been accused at various times by the quadruple entente. There would appear, however, to be no necessity for such a guarantee after the German government had been informed that such a vessel was on the high seas. Nothing would be gained by its destruction through a submarine. On the other hand, to grant it safety, even without this being requested by the papacy, would warm the hearts of Emperor William's Catholic subjects and stimulate their loyalty to him.

Prince von Buelow, a diplomatic envoy at the Vatican in his younger years, long before he was German ambassador at Rome, has always been friendly to the papal government. It is reported in London and has been for eight or nine months that Buelow believes in the restoration of temporal power to the pope as the best method of punishing Italy for participating in the war against her former allies of the triple alliance. While making extended visits to Switzerland Buelow has had frequent consultations with Catholic cardinals and other dignitaries of the church.

The pope's refusal to align himself on the side of the quadruple entente and especially to make public any protest against the invasion of Catholic Belgium by the Germans is declared in England to be due to a promise made by the sovereigns of the central empires that his temporal authority is to be restored after the war. The plan is, according to these reports, to make the pope the political as well as the spiritual sovereign in Palestine. A small state would be established, including Jerusalem and the other holy places as well as the seaport of Jaffa. The territory is believed to be enormously rich in natural resources and to be able to support a cardinal viceroy, who would rule there in the name of the pope.

The British government a few months after the beginning of the war made the extraordinary move of sending a minister to the Vatican, Sir Henry Howard, who had had a long diplomatic experience. This was a recognition of the pope's status as a sovereign, which Britain, along with all other non-Catholic governments, withdrew from the pope in 1870. Russia at the same time reopened her legation at the Vatican, where there had been no envoy for some time on account of the refusal of Russia to grant Catholics the protection which the papacy demanded. France has had no representative at the Vatican for some time, and neutral Catholic countries like Spain had also broken off diplomatic relations with the pope before the war.

STORY OF AN ORNAMENT.

The Lalliere and the French Beauty Who First Wore It.

Do you know what a lalliere is? You have seen many neck ornaments of more or less elaborate design suspended from chains that were thin or massive, which were sold as lallieres. The traveler who knows his business will tell you that the large and highly ornate ornament made of hand wrought gold and studded with many gems, suspended from a thick chain and resting on the bare skin just above the low cut bodice, is a "stomacher," whereas the "lalliere" is light and delicate in construction, is set with not more than three stones and is on a slender chain.

The heavy ornament was formerly worn on the front of the dress, the entire front part of a bodice, which extended down over the pit of the stomach, being called the stomacher. It was an English mode, whereas the lalliere came into existence in France in 1666, having been designed at the suggestion of Louis XIV. as a gift to Francoise Louise de la Baume le Blanc, when she was made Duchess de la Valliere. Of all the king's favorites she was the most interesting. She became "queen of the petticoat court" when Louis was but twenty-eight years old and when Colbert and Louvois were making the French treasury and the French army the greatest and most formidable powers in Europe. At thirty she retired to a convent, where she spent her declining years writing that mournful essay, "Reflections on the Pity of God."—Exchange.

DUBLIN IS VERY ANCIENT.

It May Have Been In Existence In the Time of Ptolemy.

Do you know how old Dublin is? Probably not. Few cities tell their correct age, but there is a rumor that the Irish capital, the picturesque city on the banks of the Liffey, at the entrance to Dublin bay, is much older than she pretends to be. In fact, it has been asserted by some ungalant scholars that she was already a buxom girl when Ptolemy sat on the throne of Egypt and that the fair city on the western island was mentioned in the writings of that day. In later times, say about 212 A. D., it already had a history. When the Danes came, some 900 years later, the Celts had been at peace so long that they fell victims to the invaders, but submission was no part of their program.

The inhabitants of the island are Celtic to the very core, and never have they become reconciled to the idea of sharing their beautiful country with either Saxons, Danes, Teutons or Norse. At one time, when the city of Dublin had become pretty thoroughly English in its feeling, the people of the hill country came down and massacred most of the inhabitants in the year 1170. Richard de Clare, known as Richard Strongbow, the second earl of Pembroke, crossed the Irish channel with a great host and captured the city. But he became governor of the island only after he married the daughter of one of the Celtic kings.—St. Louis Globe Democrat.
